"A Little Song About Tom"

by Rebecca Enney

This is a little song that my characters are going to do for you.
Ken will play the part of Thomas, one of the friends of Jesus called a disciple.
Barabas will also be one of the disciples. Here are the other disciples of Jesus

When Jesus rose up from His grave
He visited His friends.
They saw his hands, they saw his feet.
They knew that it was Him.

But Thomas was not with the group
He was too sad to come.
He was not there and did not know
What Jesus had just done.

The friends they ran to tell Thomas
That Jesus was alive.
And Thomas said, that can not be
That surely is a lie.

"Unless I see his hands and feet
With my very eyes.
I won't believe that He is here.
This is a bunch of lies."

Then one week passed and Jesus came
To visit them once more.
He walked right in and looked at Tom
He walked thru a locked door.

And Thomas saw with no more doubt
That it was truly Him.
Tom said "My Lord and My God!
My Faith can now begin."

Jesus told Thomas "You have believed because you have seen me.

Blessed are all those who have NOT seen me and yet have come to believe!"

The disciples wrote this story down, and many others, because they were eye witnesses. And we are the people who now believe in part, because of what they wrote down.

Thank you, God for those eye witnesses!
