

“Heaven’s Window”

Malachi 3:10

November 9, 2008

By Rebecca Enney

God has given us so many blessings! It is as if God has opened the windows of heaven and poured out blessing after blessing! The Mawakasunga family knows it is important to share with others what God has first given us. Every Sunday Elizabeth almost always remembers to bring an item of food for the basket out in the Gathering Space. Then all that food is taken to Harrisburg to the Food Panty for families how can not afford to go to the supermarket.

Today it is Mr. Mawakasunga’s turn to take the food over. Elizabeth helped her daddy put it all in Uncle Floyd’s truck. Elizabeth remembered helping last time. She met two nice little potato sisters.

“Oh what were their names?” thought Elizabeth. “They looked so poor. The one name started with a T. Maybe I’ll see them today!”

And sure enough, when they got over to the church in Harrisburg, she saw two little potatoes at the church playground. When Elizabeth and her father went over to say ‘hello’, they were taken aback with how awful the two little potato sisters looked!

Elizabeth made up her mind to be especially kind and said in a timid little voice “Hi . . . remember me?”

“Elizabeth!” the two sister shouted! “Our best friend came back!” And they jumped up and down.

“Oh!” Elizabeth thought to herself. “They remembered my name, but I can’t remember their name!” And then, to them she said “It is so nice to see you! Can we play for awhile Daddy, while you unload the truck?”

Mr. Mawakasunga said “yes” and watched his daughter protectively as he carried the boxes of food into the Food Pantry.

First they played tag and then they went on the sliding board. Then the one little potato said “Let’s rest for awhile, cause my sister Toquoia is tired.”

And Toquoia said “Latishia, you are probably tired too!” And they laughed and sat down.

Elizabeth asked “How are you? I haven’t been here since last January.”

“We are both getting better.” they said together. “We were at the hospital for a long time, but now the treatments are over and we are getting strong again.”

Elizabeth wondered “What treatments” and “What hospital” and “I wonder what made them be so sick.”

Soon Mr. Mawakasunga was ready to head back home. He sat and watched his daughter play with Toquoia and Latishia. He thought about what the lesson from Malachi said this morning: “I will open the windows of heaven for you and pour down for you an overflowing blessing.”

God has asked us to share our time and our food and our money so that all may be blessed.

Elizabeth and her father brought God’s blessing to Toquoia and Latishia..

Perhaps you will carry God’s Blessings to someone today! THE END