Celebration of Thanksgiving

Sunday, November 19, 2006
5:30 PM – Fellowship Hall

You can purchase ticket(s) for the congregational dinner - $5 for adults; $3 for children ages 4-12 (children age 3 & under will be served free) - in the Gathering Space after all services on Sundays October 29 and November 5 & 12.

Following dinner, we'll continue our celebration with a musical program featuring the talents of several groups and individuals in the congregation.

Please join our Trinity Church family as we celebrate the bounty of Thanksgiving.
Here are ways you can be involved:

1. Volunteer to prepare and/or deliver meal(s) to at-home members in our community during the afternoon. There will also be an opportunity for you to make a financial contribution at the congregational dinner to help pay for at-home member meals.
2. Help with preparation, serving or clean-up for the congregational dinner. Sign-up sheets will be available at the ticket table in the Gathering Space.
3. Bring non-perishable food items to help feed others in the area. Your gifts will be shared with the free Thanksgiving Day Dinner at Zion Lutheran Church in Harrisburg and with food pantries supported by Trinity.

Please share the bounty you enjoy with others by giving a food offering through Trinity Lutheran Church this Thanksgiving season. You may support either or both of these opportunities.

Non-Perishable Food Pantry Items

For distribution to needy families by the community food pantries regularly supported by our church.

Buy some extra groceries while shopping, bring to the Nov. 19 congregational Thanksgiving Dinner and help create the evening's table centerpieces with your gift of food:

- Canned fruit, vegetables, meat, tuna
- Paper towels, toilet tissue, facial tissues
- Rice, pasta, peanut butter, flour, sugar
- Fruit juices

Ingredients for Thanksgiving Day Meal

To feed the homeless at Zion Lutheran Church in downtown Harrisburg on Thursday, November 23

- Five 12-14 lb. frozen turkeys (can be free turkey with super market coupon)
- Fifteen one-lb. bags of stuffing
- Four 5-lb. bags of potatoes
- Six large (#10) cans of corn
- Three one-lb. bags carrots
- Three bunches of celery
- Eight pies

Contact Mary Kichman (932-4717) or Becky Enney (737-4115) for details or to volunteer to help prepare/serve/clean-up for this dinner.

On Thanksgiving Day, November 23, our congregation will join forces with the congregation of Zion Lutheran, Harrisburg to provide a free Thanksgiving Dinner to those individuals who use the homeless shelter program over the winter months. The meal will be served at Zion at 4:30 p.m. We expect about 35 guests will come to dinner. Would you like to help with this ministry? If you would like to donate a frozen turkey or roast a turkey and drop it off at Trinity on Thanksgiving Day, bake a pie, donate food, come eat and interact with our guests, serve, clean up or decorate, we've got a job for you! Also, a TV will be set up to watch the football games together.

Sign up in the Gathering Space to volunteer to help at the meal or to donate or donate any of the following items. Or you may speak with Becky Enney (737-4115) or Mary Kichman (932-4717) for more information.

STAFF NOTES

A Walk in the Cemetery

In the town where I served my first congregation—Duncannon—there was a cemetery on the hill above the church. My husband Randy and I enjoyed taking daily walks together there in the peace and quiet. Parishioners would often see us going up and down the gentle rises, weaving our way on the various paths until we'd managed our two-mile-or-so walk. When we moved to New Bloomfield, there was another cemetery, though because the terrain was fairly level, our exercise wasn't quite so aerobic.

I've always liked walking in cemeteries (well, in the daytime, at least). Even in the town where I attended college—Greenville, PA—there was a large cemetery just past my Alma Mater. Classmates and I, when skipping an occasional Renaissance Art History Class (it was at 1:00 p.m., and I'd only fall asleep anyway), would linger on the cemetery paths, reading various headstones from years earlier. It made for interesting reading. We chuckled at the name "Loveless" on one gravestone, although we realized that by the flowers so well tended, and the other inscriptions on the stone, this person was certainly loved and remembered by their family.

I hungered to know the histories of folks long buried. In the cemetery up above my church in Duncannon, there was a headstone for "Socrates Green." I like the sound of that name, don't you? And don't you wonder who Socrates Green was? What rich experiences of life did he have?

Sometimes on these cemetery walks, I would see recently-dug graves and the remains of flowers from the funeral turning brown upon the brown dirt. Some of the people buried in these graves I knew—people I was graced by God to know, and I grieved their passing. Taking a walk in the cemetery would make me consider the passing of time and the passing of generations.

Perhaps it seems like mixing apples and oranges here, but I also saw my fair share of babies in strollers while walking in the cemetery. In fact, in New Bloomfield, Randy and I often walked with our Sarah and Matthew in the double stroller (this was pre-Rebecca). Then again, it makes perfect sense to reflect on cemeteries and babies simultaneously. What images to bring together as we consider the cycle of life, and the sheer gift of being part of God's creation. Past and present and future are bound together by Him. Our ancestors shared the story of God's mighty acts with us. We in turn share that same story with our children. As the Psalmist sang, "Every day I will bless you, and praise your name forever and ever. Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised, and his greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall laud your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts. . . . Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures throughout all generations." (Psalm 145:2-3, 13)

If we truly believe in the "communion of saints," as we confess in the Apostles' Creed each week in worship, then we know we are linked to those generations who have gone before us, and those who will come after us. We join with all God's people in every time and place in praise of Him who will, at the last, bring time and history to an end, and establish an everlasting kingdom of peace, of shalom.

And thus, the passing of time is not so much something to grieve as it is something to look upon with awe. Cemeteries and babies fill me with that kind of awe.

The Reverend Nancy R. Easton

LETTERS TO TRINITY

Dear Pastors and Trinity Members:

We can't thank everyone enough for the many prayers, cards and flowers and pastor visits during Tim's brief hospitalization. Just knowing there were so many concerned people and even more praying for us was such a comfort. I truly believe this made Tim's recovery much quicker.

Sincerely,

Kim, Ashley and Tim Adams

Dear Trinity:

We wish to thank you for the beautiful altar flowers delivered to us by your Flower Delivery Team on August 27. They helped to brighten our day and stayed fresh for a week.

Allan and Mary Hull

Dear Trinity:

I wish to thank the members and staff of Trinity Lutheran Church for their kind thoughts, prayers, cards, and visits during my recent hospitalization, transitional care, and recovery at home. I appreciated the messages sent to me as it really helped to know that others care.

Sincerely,

Dick Johnson

Dear Pastors, Friends of Trinity and Choir Members:

Thank you for the prayers, pastor's visits, all the calls and cards during my recent surgery. It was especially nice to have Vicar Barbara visit in the hospital, she is delightful. To my fellow choir members, you are like family. You have taken me under your wing and it is so comforting to receive your calls and cards. I am blessed to have Trinity in my life. May God bless you all.

Sincerely,

Lois Quigley

Dear Trinity:

Your friendship, generosity and well wishes were a support to our family during Maggie's surgery and recovery. Thank you for keeping Maggie in your thoughts and prayers.

Love,

The Kormushoff Family
Alex, Kay, David, Maggie and Kate

Dear Trinity:

On behalf of Camp Hill Presbyterian Church, I would like to say thank you to Trinity Lutheran Church, your church council, Pastor Hardy, and Timothy Koch for the opportunity to co-sponsor organist Carol Williams in recital on September 24. The large congregation enjoyed a wonderful recital by this talented artist.

David Binkley, Organist/Choirmaster
Camp Hill Presbyterian Church

THANK YOU FROM THE CARE TEAM

The response to the request for help for the Jim Fickes family has been extremely gratifying. Many of you have prepared meals, cleaned their yard, offered assistance with other needs and attended an ALS informational meeting.

The family very much appreciates all these acts of kindness and caring. We ask for your continued prayers and support in the coming months. Thank you for putting your faith into action.

Carol Lundquist, Coordinator, Meals
Jane Hess, Coordinator, Care Team

TRINITY PRAYER CONCERNS

We pray for:

- Our staff and volunteers as they labor to sustain our ministry as we approach the busy Advent season.
- Vicar Pond as she seeks to define her continuing service to God.
- All of the candidates up for election, and that everyone goes to the polls and exercises their right to vote.
- The speakers, pastors and lay people attending The Pennsylvania State Pastors Conference from November 13-15.
- The people of Columbia, Ecuador, and Venezuela who face a multitude of challenges in their daily lives.
- People who have less than adequate food on their table not only at Thanksgiving, but every day.

SHE IS MY SISTER

The poster read, "Christ Renews His Parish." And I was curious because I thought of Trinity as a vibrant, self-renewing congregation. By what mechanism or service could our church possibly be rejuvenated? So I signed on, expecting to learn some "gimmicks" for enticing new members and encouraging those who were no longer active. How far off the mark I was!

CRHP is a very personal, life-changing experience that stirs your soul, reinforces your love of God and illuminates your humanity at its deepest level. In this world of increasing depersonalization, you will reconnect with profound feelings, both troublesome and joyful – honestly you will – in a supportive, respectful atmosphere, as you allow yourself to open and share the gifts of bonding.

Inspired facilitators are totally dedicated to your journey toward renewal. (They have already experienced the CRHP class before yours.) The resource materials are erudite, and the structure self-activated. Beginning CRHP sisters come together basically unknown to one another, and a bit shy about the process, then gradually build trust and admiration for the real sister behind the accommodating smile. It is more than beautiful to watch.

CRHP is a concentrated commitment in time, study and self-discovery. It is profound enough that one of my sisters is going into the ministry; another has redirected her faltering spirituality, and the third found strength to battle past weaknesses.

We all have been touched by faith expressed on its most intimate terms of the soul level. You can be re-awakened too, by joining the CRHP 4 class now. It is pure joy!

Gretchen Brewer, CRHP 2

ARTIST OF THE MONTH BARBARA PASSERI WARFEL

Barbara Passeri Warfel has earned a reputation for excellence as an artist and instructor of oil painting and drawing in south central Pennsylvania, particularly in the area of portraiture. Her portraits and still life work are widely displayed, winning awards and honors, including: "Best of Show" at the Art Association of Harrisburg. Her portrait "Danielle" was chosen for display at the Governor's Mansion. She also enjoys drawing and painting flowers from her garden as well as still life arrangements. She participated as a designer in the 2006 Harrisburg Symphony Society Designer Showhouse, creating an artist's bedroom/garret on the third floor. In October she was honored by receiving Jump Street's SPECTRUM Award for Excellence in the Arts and will be featured in Harrisburg Magazine's December issue.

Barbara holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in art education from Rowan University and completed graduate study in advanced drawing at the University of Hartford. She has received instruction in oil painting from Li Hidley and John Whitney. In 1990 she began teaching adults in painting and oil portraiture for the Art Association of Harrisburg, as well as the Arts Center School and Gallery in Mechanicsburg.

Sharing what she has learned throughout her artistic life is a great joy. In 1998 she designed and implemented an arts program especially for senior adults residing in assisted living facilities and does art therapy with Alzheimer's patients in an assisted living setting and in adult daycare.

Barbara offers seminars in drawing at the Art Center School and Galleries called "The Quiet Eye". The seminar is designed to develop an individual's drawing expertise and is for beginners as well as those trying to improve their skills.

BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP

In an unnamed South American country, a concert that follows a state dinner for an international businessman ends with terrorists taking the guests hostage. What happens in the next days and months is the story Ann Patchett tells in Bel Canto. Patchett won the PEN/Faulkner award in 2002 for this novel. The discussion of Bel Canto will take place on Sunday, November 19, at 9:30 a.m. in Room 234.

The December book, Under the Banner of Heaven: A story of violent faith by Jon Krakauer, reports on mainstream Mormonism and its fundamentalist offspring, which frequently promote polygamy and racism. We meet to discuss this book on Sunday, December 10 at 9:30 a.m. in Room 234.

The Book Discussion Group is open to all members of Trinity. The purpose of the group is to enjoy fellowship while talking about a commonly read book. For more information, contact Craig Staller at c.staller@att.net or 717-921-1957.

YOUR LIBRARY

DID YOU KNOW: The church library is open for browsing and use whenever the building is open? Assistance is available on Wednesday mornings.

I use the library quite a bit; to borrow books, check on references and sometimes just to spend some quiet time there. If you have never visited our library to look through all the materials stored there you are in for a wonderful surprise.

Our library has many materials, from Bibles to books on U.S. and world history and geography. Some other selections are devotions, inspiration, meditation, prayer, Christian living, drama, poetry, aging, youth and social issues, arts and crafts, church music and hymnals. There is also a children's section, and LARGE print books along with many video and audio tapes.

For the benefit of all who use the library I am listing the rules/guidelines so that everyone is able to enjoy maximum use of all of the materials.

1. Books may be borrowed from the library at any time. Reference works have special markings on the spine of the book and should not be removed from the library without checking with the librarian.
2. When borrowing any material, please sign the card in the pocket at the back of the book.
3. Books should not be borrowed for more than 4 weeks. This is a very generous time period. If needed for a longer period, please check with the librarian. If no one has requested the material, which is usually the case, you may renew the book(s).
4. Returned books should be placed in the desk drawer in the library so that they can be processed and replaced on the shelves by the library volunteers.
5. It is expected that lost or badly damaged books will be replaced by the borrower.
6. Audio tapes of services and Thursday Bible study are also available in the library. They are located above the card file. As with books, please make sure you sign on the sheet placed above the tapes. List the date of the service or Bible study, date picked up and return date of the tape.
7. Library staff will be on duty Wednesday morning, 9:30 – 11:00 a.m. and assistance is available at this time. Betty Lou Waldner is our librarian.
8. Should you have any questions or a need for any book not in the library, please advise Betty Lou so that consideration can be given to obtaining it in the future.

PARISH MINISTRY:

Videos on osteoporosis and heart failure have been catalogued and recently placed in the library for borrowing.

YG NEWS

Greetings to all in the name of the Lord. The YG (youth group) season is back for 2006. The season is only one month old and things have been so busy already. This is a strong sign of things to come as well. Our YG calendar is so jam-packed with so much to do for everyone. There is something YG related on every weekend. If it's not a large group meeting, it's a small group meeting. There are plenty of meetings, events, retreats, sleepovers, and various get-togethers for everybody. What a year we have planned for the YG and it has all just begun. So the time definitely is right to get out to YG and make a fresh start. If you are in grades 6-12 we want to see you soon. Here is a taste of what we did in the month of September.

We kicked off the YG season on Sunday, September 10 when we had our first YG meeting of the year. Over 80 people were in attendance at the meeting. There were a lot of new faces there and some old ones too. The advisors and I were really stoked at the turnout. The meeting ran really well. The meeting is always a laid back one that introduces kids to YG and all of our traditions. Much faith, fun and fellowship was had by all in attendance. We attended the synod-wide JR. HIGH EVENT called ALIVE, ALIVE at Camp Nawakwa on the weekend of September 15-17. Thirteen of our Jr. High youth and two advisors attended this awesome weekend. It was a blast from start to finish! Three hundred plus youth from our synod gather for this event every year. There is large group, small groups, music, speakers, and tons of faith and fun. Plus, it gives me a chance to really get to know our younger YG. It is a great bonding weekend. This year was no exception. Our second YG meeting was the very next weekend on September 24. Around 75 people gathered for a "getting to know you" type meeting. With the group being so big, it's important to get to know people as well as we can so that's what we did. We did this through games, fellowship large group and small groups. We had our first small group sessions of the year at this meeting. This is a favorite part for most YG kids and it served as a good introduction to some of our newer advisors. Everyone had a great time at this meeting and they learned a lot about each other in the process. Well, that was September for you, and it was a great start for what promises to be an awesome year! I can't wait.

Yours in Christ,
Peter A. Fox
Youth Ministry Director

MEN'S BIBLE STUDY SECOND AND FOURTH TUESDAY

The Tuesday morning Men's Bible Study meets on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month for breakfast from 7:00 to 8:00 a.m. at Brother's Restaurant, Route 15 South, Mechanicsburg. The Bible study session is under the leadership of Rev. Guy Edmiston.

Our study during this nine-month period covers the parables of Jesus.

You may order anything from a cup of coffee to a full breakfast. You will also enjoy great fellowship. Give this opportunity a try.

SUPPER CLUBS

Supper Clubs are now forming for January, February and March. What a great way to enjoy good company and food, all the while getting to know fellow members of Trinity better. The formal name of Trinity's supper club is Bread Breakers – but the basics are the same as any supper club.

There will be 6-10 people in each supper group. They'll get together once a month for three months, at dinners held at a fellow member's home. The host prepares the main dish and everyone else brings side dishes, desserts, etc. Sign up or get more information by talking with Kathy Holmes at kathyholmes@mac.com or call 761-4977.

COUNCIL NOTES

Congregation Council met on Monday, September 11, and the following actions were taken:

- All of the members who made the Carnival of Giving such an informative, festive, spiritual event were thanked, with special recognition to co-chairs Mary Kichman and Jen Gallagher for their efforts.
- Trinity's Preschool Playgroup was given permission to conduct a fundraiser of Giant Food gift cards for the current school year.
- A task force was appointed, chaired by Peter Pennington, to develop a plan for the gifting or sale of the chapel pipe organ without cost to Trinity.
- The Churches Affiliated Child Care Center was given permission to sell Advent Calendars during the month of November. This annual fundraiser benefits their scholarship fund.

Dear God,

Sometimes I think we should not offer thanks
For harvest tables laid in bounteous store.
This feast was man's design,
But soft brown earth from which it came
Is Thine.

Should we not ask instead that You forgive
The bounteous daily blessings we ignore?
Forgive us that we thank Thee once a year;
Help us remember Thou art always here.

Helen Courcier

"In every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God."

MISSIONS CORNER

I bring you greetings from Bishop Israel-Peter Mwakyolile from the Konde Diocese in Tanzania.

He and his wife, Ngalonda Mwakyolile visited the Lower Susquehanna Synod in the middle of September and I was fortunate to meet with them when they spoke at Messiah College on September 30. They were enthusiastic about telling us of all that is happening in their Diocese. "Please," the Bishop said, "tell your people that we are forever grateful for the companionship we have with each other. My thanks to all of you for keeping the promise you made to the Diocese. We fail to have the right words to express our sincere thanks in what you do. God will bless you abundantly." The John L. Bush Sunday School Class continues to be in contact with our companion congregation, Kambasegela Lutheran Church in Tukuyu. This is part of your missions' money at work in the world. Thank you for continuing your support.

"On Eagle's Wings" request for prayers. On October 28 at 5:15 p.m. Mountain Standard Time there will be a Dedication Service for the new building that "On Eagle's Wings" has just purchased for their home office in Edmonton, Alberta. They are very excited about this and want us to join in the dedication. Now I know that some of you will get this after October 28 but I felt that you could add to your prayers when you receive your Trinity Parish.

Loving Creator,

*For all the ways you continue to grace On Eagle's Wings,
 For the ministry northern and southern people share,
 For the gift which enabled the purchase of a permanent home,
 For people who touch the lives of so many in this ministry,
 For your patience and steadfastness in the midst of our apprehension,
 We give you thanks and praise.
 Continue to help us walk forward in faith.
 We desire to dedicate this building to become the permanent home of
 On Eagle's Wings. May your love be ever present and may all who Enter be welcomed and accepted as you accept us.
 We accept this office as your gift, and we dedicate it to you.
 In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.*

OFFERING ENVELOPES

Offering Envelopes will be available in the Gathering Space beginning Thursday, November 9. It will save on postage if you can pick up your box during this time and perhaps that of a neighbor or friend who is unable to get to church.

Thanks for your help.

WOMEN OF TRINITY
 NOVEMBER CIRCLE MEETINGS
 "Becoming Women of Purpose"

There are five Women of Trinity Circle meetings to choose from and all women in the church (and their guests) are welcome to attend any of the following circles:

Circle Name	Date	Circle Leaders	Circle Time and Place
Lydia	Wednesday, November 1	Lori McBride	6:30 p.m. Library
Esther	Monday, November 6	Joan Gamber and Jean Zimmerman	7:00 p.m. Library
Deborah	Tuesday, November 7	Peggy Bishop, Anne Fry, and Betty Wade	9:30 a.m. Library
Ruth	Tuesday, November 7	Ruth Bertovich and Ruth Deitz	9:30 a.m. Room 237
Elizabeth	Tuesday, November 7	Elizabeth Winters	1:30 p.m. Library

The circles this year are studying the book, Becoming Women of Purpose, by Ruth Haley Barton. It is not necessary to attend every month's circle meeting in order to benefit from the book discussion and no pre-reading is necessary – just join us!

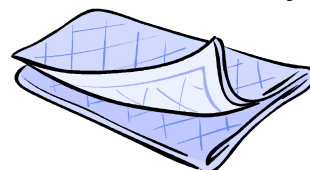

Women of Trinity – faith, fellowship, service, sharing, and learning together!!!

A NEW WOMEN OF TRINITY GROUP IS NOW FORMING!

This group will also be reading and discussing Becoming Women of Purpose. The study explores how women's choices affect their lives with commitments to family, friends, career and home. The new group will meet on the last Tuesday of each month beginning October 31, 9:30 – 11:00 a.m.

Women are welcome to bring young children. The discussion will be held in the nursery until we can provide childcare. If interested, please contact Carol Sunday at 732-3155 or Mary Alin Lubold at 728-9203. You are welcome to join us any time.
