American Boychoir to Perform at Trinity

Trinity's 2008-2009 Concert Series continues on Saturday evening, November 8 at 7 p.m. with The American Boychoir from Princeton, N.J.

Celebrating its 70th anniversary season, The American Boychoir, under the direction of music director Fernando Malvar-Ruiz, is regarded as the United States' premier concert boys' choir and one of the finest boychoirs in the world. It continues to dazzle audiences with its unique blend of musical sophistication, effervescent spirit and ensemble virtuosity.

Boys from grades four through eight, reflecting the ethnic, religious and cultural diversity of our nation - come from nine states and four foreign countries to pursue a rigorous musical and academic curriculum at The American Boychoir School, the only non-sectarian boys' choir school in the nation.

Concerts such as these are not funded by the general budget of the church but by Concert Series Patrons who pay the large majority of expenses. Would you become a Concert Series Patron? Simply make your check for $25 or more payable to Trinity Lutheran Church with CONCERT SERIES PATRON in the memo. Thank you!

Advent Wreathmaking for All the Morning of November 23

Over the past few years, we've reinvigorated Trinity's tradition at the church of making Advent wreaths for use in the home. The best day to have this church activity is Christ the King Sunday, the last Sunday of the church year and the Sunday before the first Sunday in Advent. We typically make the wreaths in the afternoon or early evening. This year, because of the way the calendar falls, Christ the King Sunday is already the date for our church Thanksgiving dinner.

The rotation classes in our Sunday Church School have offered the use of their classrooms on the morning of November 23 for Advent wreathmaking. So at 9:30 (a.m.), any family may come to the Bibleland Room (Room 122) to receive materials and instructions on making home Advent wreaths. And then the wreaths may be made in the classroom space. A devotional to use while lighting the candles at home during the season of Advent will be available, too.

There is no cost required, though a free-will offering will be taken. So that the right number and amount of materials will be on hand, please register by writing your name on a list. We'll keep one list on the reception desk in the Gathering Space and one in the rotation area (the first floor of the education wing). You may simply set down the family name and how many will be coming.

This is not regular Sunday Church School for the rotation classes, so no children should be dropped for class on November 23. This is instead an invitation for everyone to come together as families in a special way. Whether your family is many or few or one, I encourage you to attend this gathering which will prepare us for the new church year's first season and our remembrance of Jesus Christ coming into the world.

With any questions, please be in touch with me through the church office.

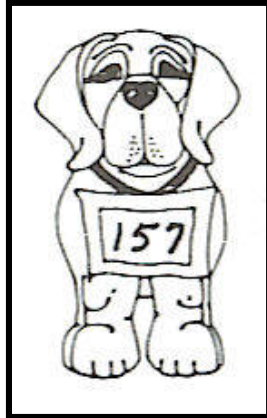

Christopher Couch
Director of Learning Ministries

Offering Envelope Boxes

2009 Offering Envelope Boxes will be available for pickup in the Gathering Space from November 13 through 30, 2008.

Blood Bank News

Many thanks to the 27 successful donors at Trinity's September 21 blood drive. As of the end of September, our YTD total is 181 units. This puts us well over Central PA Blood Bank's quota for Trinity (which is 144), and we are past Jeanie's goal of 175! By the end of December, who knows-after all, this is Trinity Lutheran, Camp Hill!

The Central PA Blood Bank apologizes for the slowness on September 21, that consequently caused a "log jam" effect, both inside and out in the van. I was assured that they will be more careful in the future to either provide two people to check vitals, or a more experienced person, since we always have an almost full schedule. If you were unable to wait on the 21st, please consider donating at a hospital or donor center. The next time the blood mobile will come to Trinity is Sunday, January 18, 2009.

The Central PA Blood Bank will use in excess of 85,000 pints of blood this year. York, Hanover and Gettysburg Hospitals have recently become part of the CPBB. Any questions: Call Jeanie Bentzel at 766-3526.

STAFF NOTES

Project Connect

In September, I spent four days in Atlanta to receive training as a Discernment Advocate for Project Connect. As I will be in this position for the next eighteen months, I've borrowed Staff Notes from Pastor Easton to talk about Project Connect.

What is Project Connect?

The full title is "Project Connect: Calling Leaders for a Changing World," and it is an initiative of the Eastern Cluster of Lutheran Seminaries (which are in Philadelphia, Gettysburg, and Southern-Columbia SC). Project Connect is funded by the Lilly Endowment, Inc.

What is it about?

The purpose of Project Connect is to find and encourage young people, ages 18-30, to consider a church vocation (pastor, associate in ministry, diaconal minister, and other areas of public ministry). An enthusiastic network of partners work together to provide theologically sound vocational discernment programs for the target audience. This endeavor will be accomplished by identifying young adults who have faith, passion, integrity, vision, self-awareness, and motivation for a lifetime of service as pastors, associates in ministry, diaconal and in other vocations of public ministry; nurturing relationships with those who are open to a process that extends, deepens, and provides focus for vocational discernment; and sustaining these relationships by providing profound experiences in congregational ministry.

What does a Discernment Advocate do?

Discernment Advocates serve Project Connect in a variety of ways, but basically are here to bring "flesh and blood, breath and life" to Project Connect. Discernment Advocates are here to start that face to face, personal encouragement to listen to God's call going on in the lives of each individual.

As people are identified by pastors, congregation members, teachers, or whomever, I will talk with them individually, and bring them together in small groups, to talk about call, ministry, and seminary (or whatever may be on their minds).

These young people will be drawn from all walks of life throughout our synod. Some travel may be involved, but those expenses are covered by Project Connect. I will be involved in some programming at all three seminaries during the next eighteen months. I hope to lead some discussions with various conferences, and to make a presentation next June at our annual Synod Assembly (which I attend as a rostered pastor).

Project Connect is targeting young people throughout Regions 7, 8 & 9, which encompasses twenty-one synods (as well as the afore mentioned three seminaries), so this is more than just finding folk here at Trinity.

As Christians, we are called to be servants, and to use the gifts given us, which include identifying leaders. As I and Trinity work with Project Connect, together we strive to live out the gospel.

Artist of the Month

Catherine Campbell is an accomplished artist who exhibits regularly and does portraits on commission. She comes from a line of "Sunday painters" and others who made things with their hands, such as Scottish and German dressmakers, weavers and milliners.

As a child, Cathy lived in Europe for several years. Countless weekends were spent fighting with her sister in the back seat of the car as their parents "dragged" them from one medieval castle after another. Little did she know how profoundly she would be influenced by the exposure to all of those portraits of French and English royalty!

Back in the states, she earned a bachelor's degree in Liberal Arts with a minor in Costume Design, and then a master's degree in Art Education.

Following a career as an art teacher, Cathy now works as a professional artist, represented by a local gallery. She finds ideas for paintings from her continued travels and in interesting faces, nature and fashion. Cathy's style falls into the category of contemporary realism. She is also known for her bold use of color.

YG News

Greetings to all in the name of the Lord. The YG (youth group) season is back in full swing for 2008. With a new YG season here, there is so much to do. The calendar is the most jam-packed that it has ever been. New YG Nites, new retreats, new events, and new friendships all await our YG participants. A lot of hard work has gone into this year to make a success. Hopefully it will all pay off.

There is truly something on almost every weekend. It will be all good!

The month of September was awesome and great in every way. We started the month off with our first YG NITE on the 14th. Around 70 YG and advisors came out for the night of faith, fun, and fellowship. The topic of the YG NITE was 'WHAT IS YG?' We discussed all of the 'in-and-outs' of what YG is all about. We talked about our traditions, shared our verses, talked about the symbol, sang our psalms, and prayed together. Somewhere in there, we even found time to play games, eat pizza, and get to know one another better. It was a very full YG NITE from start to finish. The very next weekend was the synod-wide Jr. High event called ALIVE, ALIVE. This is like my 15th or so year taking kids to this event and this year was definitely one of the best yet. We took 15 Jr. High and three advisors to this event. We were even represented by three other of our YG advisors serving as staff for the actual event. This weekend was fabulous! The theme for this year's event was TRANSFORMATION and it focused on Christ being a transformer in our lives, in our service toward others. It was a powerful message conveyed through large group and small group time. The weekend was a blast, and I know that our YG had a lot of fun and learned a lot as well. We closed down the month with another YG NITE on the 28th. Around 70 YG and advisors came out for the night of faith, fun and fellowship. The topic of this YG NITE was 'GETTING TO KNOW YOU'. While the YG, this nite was focused basically on 'getting to know' night was centered around 'getting to know' one another. So the whole nite was designed to get the youth to feel comfortable sharing who they are with everyone. Through names, games, discussion, and lessons in large and small groups this was accomplished. This nite as well as the month of September went very well. It was certainly a positive step for the new season.

This year is a gathering year as well, which calls for extra planning and preparation. Every three years the ELCA hosts the NATIONAL YOUTH GATHERING which is a nation-wide event gathering youth, pastors, and advisors from everywhere. Next summer's gathering is in New Orleans. All preparations for our YG's attendance are being made as we speak by me and Tania Springer. As of now, we have 10 Sr. High YG and four advisors registered for next summer's event. We were also able to lock-in on plane tickets already for everyone. We are even flying out of HIA to boot! So the two biggest hurdles from three years ago have been overcome, so that is a tremendous weight lifted off of our shoulders. There is still a lot to do and a lot to figure out, so the work has only really just begun. Our biggest challenge now is raising the $ needed to go. It costs over $1,000 to go to an event of this magnitude. The youth pay some of this cost, the church budget pays for some of this cost, and we raise some of this cost through YG fundraisers. On that note, PLEASE COME ON OUT AND SUPPORT OUR YOUTH WITH OUR VARIOUS FUNDRAISERS THIS SEASON! Following this article is a list of them all. In short, we need to raise a lot of money for this trip. Since we need as much money as possible to make this event happen, we are always looking for donations toward this trip. If you would like to give money in support of our youth and this trip; please make your checks out to "TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH" and put "NATIONAL YOUTH GATHERING" in the memo line. You can drop the checks off in my box in the church office. If you mail your contribution, please make sure to put "Attention: Peter Fox" on the envelope to assure it gets to me. Anything you could give would go a long way to help us. Thank you for all of your support! With that said, I must get back to work. I have a lot to do. I am looking forward to this YG year. It will be a definite busy one, but a good one all the same. The year will ROCK! I CAN'T WAIT!!!

Yours in Christ,

Peter A. Fox
Youth Ministry Director

Discipleship Opportunities

Thanks to Trinity members who completed and returned their 2009 Discipleship Opportunities form. Continued commitment to our many ministries has been updated. Committee chairs and coordinators received lists of persons "interested" in specific ministries and will acknowledge those individuals with a phone call, an email or snail-mail.

Several ministries not included on the form were identified. Trinity's Spiritual Gifts Coordinator, Judy Collins, is grateful for the gifts some members see in others. Those individuals have been contacted and invited to participate in a specific ministry. More than 40 ministries outside of Trinity were mentioned, including scouting programs, hospital, nursing home, and library volunteers, Operation Shoebox, Habitat for Humanity, Lions Club, care for grandchildren, neighbors and an aging spouse, American Red Cross and Meals on Wheels, just to name a few!

It's never too late to update your activities' record. 2009 Discipleship Opportunities (time and ability) forms are available at the receptionist's desk in the Gathering Space or from Judy Collins (737-9921 x239).

Fair Trade Products

Your support of Fair Trade Products, which will be available the first Sunday of each month, insures the following:

- Farmers and artisans can build a better future for themselves, their families and also their communities. Prices that exceed their production costs allow them to feed their families, stay out of debt and keep their land.
- Children's rights are protected. It helps provide affordable education, better health care and avoid dangerous work because of poverty.
- Women are encouraged to hold leadership roles in the co-ops, own/co-own land and have equal rights and responsibilities.
- Indigenous people face discrimination based on language, culture, religion and ethnic identify. Fair trade co-ops serve as a way to address these problems. They also serve as a way to address political, military and territorial assaults on their way of life.

These are but highlights of why our purchase of Fair Trade Products make a difference. Thank you for your continued support.

Parish Ministry

Ministry to members in need - TRINITY CARES is ready to help!

I remind you to stir up the gift of God which is in you..." 2 Timothy 1:6

The church is the gathering of the called of God - to serve each other with the gifts He has given and is grounded in God's word. He calls us into the priesthood of believers, in which we are to serve one another with love as "little Christs" in various needs.

Each of us is equipped with the power of the gospel to serve others. God is very much concerned about these needs and he sends the church.

Trinity Cares is a group of Trinity volunteers ready to serve one another when there is a need. If you have a short-term emergency need such as transportation, errands, hot meals or companion sitting call one of the following coordinators. They will take the information, clarify the request and call a Trinity Cares volunteer who best meets your need. You may also pick up one of the yellow Trinity Cares cards in the pew pockets or the Gathering Space for easy reference.

Terri Denison 737-7751	Transportation
Roberta Smith 761-0519	Errands
Fran Gable 766-2244	Meals
Anne Meek 975-3832	Companion Sitting

Although crisis situations are never welcome or anticipated Trinity Cares is available for all members of our congregation. Many of us are reluctant to ask for help since it is important to be independent and self sufficient, but should you find yourself in the midst of a dilemma, our volunteers will always be there. Call one of these Trinity Cares Coordinators as a first option and not as a last resort.

Letter to Trinity

Dear Friends of Trinity,
I want to take this opportunity to let everyone know that all of the prayers are helping me go through a move to housing that will be more appropriate for me. I hope to remain in Camp Hill and continue God's work.
Thank you each and every one!!
Sincerely,

Anne Meek

Bountiful Blessings

Adventures in Bibleland, Trinity's Elementary Sunday school program, kicked off the 2008 - 2009 school year with a blast back in time to learn about different biblical events with a discussion about Moses from his birth and early life to the time when he was a shepherd and was called by God from the burning bush. In October, the children learned about the Plagues, Passover and the Escape.

Sunday school incorporates different methods to explain the concepts through drama, science, cooking, games and videos. The stories are often enhanced through hands-on activities.

This year our Rotation Sunday School Mission Partner is Bountiful Blessings, which serves need-based families in the area. The goal of the organization is to provide non-consumable goods to families during temporary times of financial hardship. During the month of September the children collected diapers, wipes and other baby items and in their efforts collected over 80 items! October's collection involved toilet paper and tissues.

In November we will be participating in Bountiful Blessings' Christmas/Holiday Gift Program. We will be collecting new books for children ages newborn to 17. Rolls of wrapping paper (new or unused) may be brought. In December, we will be collecting new or gently used stuffed animals.

In November and December, contributions will be received in the rotation area, the first floor of the education wing on Sunday mornings.

Adventures in Bibleland meets from 9:30 - 10:30 a.m. in the Sunday school wing on the first floor. All children, grades Kindergarten through fifth grade, are welcome to join us at any time. For more information contact Christopher Couch in the church office at 737-8635.

"The Lutheran" Adult Forum

Please join us on Sunday, November 30 at 9:30 a.m. in Room 232-234 for our next discussion on "Lutheranism 202". You'll find several articles and a study guide on the Augsburg Confession and Martin Luther ("Angry Man of the 16th Century") in the October 2008 issue of The Lutheran magazine. If you do not have access to the articles (either on-line or in the magazine), please contact class coordinators Craig Staller or Doug Bonsall (921-1957).

Trinity Prayer Concerns

He was wounded for our transgressions. Isaiah 53:5.

When Jesus lifted up His voice and cried, "It is finished," He did not mean His life was ebbing away or God's plan had been foiled. Though death was near, Jesus realized the last obstacle had been hurdled and the last enemy destroyed. He had successfully and triumphantly completed the task of redemption. With the words, "It is done," He announced that heaven's door was open.

Rev. Billy Graham

Heavenly Father,

All praise, honor, and glory we give to You, O God! When we think of November, we generally think of Thanksgiving family get-togethers, good food, and of giving thanks for our blessings and gifts...Let us remember to give thanks daily for the greatest gift we will EVER receive...Your Son, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ! His sacrifice on the cross, subsequent resurrection and victory over death, should be one of the first thoughts that enters our minds as we begin each new day; and one of the last thoughts that carries us to peaceful rest each night! How we choose to return our praise and thankfulness...through our spiritual relationships, combined with our gifts of love and service to others...will define us as Christians and as disciples!

- We pray for all of our brothers and sisters who are in true need...the sick, the lonely, the abused, the neglected, those in prisons, those in danger, and those who are fearful or lost! We would ask that You might have mercy upon them, and restore hope, fulfillment, thankfulness, and purpose to their lives.
- Father, we pray for our church, our pastors, and our staff; we pray for our families, and our children; we pray for safe communities in which to live; we pray for divinely inspired leaders; we pray that Your Holy Spirit will guide us individually and collectively into Christian service; and we pray that the Good News will always be our source of hope and direction.
- As we prepare for Trinity's Annual Thanksgiving Dinner, let us be mindful that all food comes from You, Father... We are truly grateful! We give thanks for all the wonderful volunteers who help to make this a joyous event! We pray that the meals delivered to our shut-ins and meals-on-wheels recipients will be a source of great comfort and joy to them.
- Lord, we know that Your love for children is great! We pray that our love and care for them will be good and pleasing in Your sight. Please give us the strength, wisdom, and patience to teach, inspire, and nourish them. We give thanks for our youth groups...their thoughts, prayers, ideas, and service to this congregation and to the larger community are received with grateful appreciation.

All these prayer requests and anything else that You might have us know or do, we pray for in Jesus' name, Amen.

Attention: "Trinity Knitters"

It's hard to believe the Christmas season will soon be upon us. The Special Concerns Committee of the Women of Trinity has contacted the Harrisburg School District and they will be again planning the Christmas Party for the homeless children at the Civic Club of Harrisburg on Monday, December 15.

The WOT Special Concerns Committee has been invited again this year to be guests at the party with the homeless children which will be hosted by the EDS Community Involvement Council.

We would hope that the "Trinity Knitters" as we are called by the Harrisburg School District have been busy knitting those lovely scarves, hats and gloves all summer. The children really look forward to selecting the items at the Christmas party in December.

Last year we were looking for a charity to receive our knitted items and found that there was a need in the Harrisburg School District for knitted items for the 400 homeless children that are registered in the district.

In 2007 we donated 171 items: 78 knit caps, 59 glove sets, and 34 scarves. We would ask that you please place your items in the Christmas box located in the Gathering Space no later than Wednesday, December 10. If the box is not there, it will be in the Collection Closet. Should you have any questions, please contact Joyce Roy at 761-8204 or Met Robertson at 545-2914.

Social Ministry

Bethesda Mission

For 94 years Bethesda Mission has helped poor and homeless people regain productive lives by offering food, shelter and life-changing programs. Trinity has financially supported the Men's Shelter in Harrisburg for many years, while eight members currently serve as mentors. Last year Bethesda served over 76,000 meals and provided more than 9,300 bags of groceries. The Social Ministry Committee approved a special gift of $1,200 to be used for building renovation and rising energy costs. This money is beyond Trinity's annual financial commitment supporting the humanitarian work of Bethesda Mission and comes by way of designated Social Ministry funds.
