

Trinity Lutheran Church
Arts Team
Council Report
June 10, 2018

Old Business:

1. Bill Range provided an update for the monthly artist display schedule. June and July will be art work from VBS. September the quilting ministry will be displayed. In December Bill hopes Dick Michalean will have an exhibit. He will call Patty Marshall for more names who she recommends. We would like to have a display scheduled in memory of Mary Kay Fager. Bill will contact Charles Fager for more information.
2. Tim Koch reviewed the information from the 2017-2018 concert series. All in attendance of this meeting agreed the Series again this year was a big success. The projected Cash Balance in the Concert Series fund is: $27,000.

New Business:

1. We are requesting that other groups in the church be mindful and respectful of the Visiting Artist Display in the Gathering Space. If the table in front of this needs to be used by a group, we request not blocking the artwork, and not to infringe on the literature that the artist may leave for the parishioners.
2. Judy Collins emailed Mary Haar about the donations of gifts from her father, Kenneth Bistline. There were two items that were specifically considered. A Christus Rex that Mr. Bistline had carved and an Italian marble sculpture of the Last Supper. It was decided we would accept the Christus Rex. We already have an Italian marble sculpture of the Last Supper, which is located in the library. Mary Haar will contact Judy Collins about our decision.

3. Concert Series: Tim Koch distributed the 2018-2019 concert series. The budget for the Series has been set to be around $19,000. This was approved unanimously. NOTE: If Tim gets Cantus, an 8 men vocal ensemble for Sunday, December 9, the Harrisburg Choral Society concert slated for Sunday, December 2 will be cancelled.
