Staff

The staff had a great retreat on June 25th. Its was a good opportunity for our new colleagues Sarah Yee and Pastor Liz to get to know us and us, them. We also reviewed and evaluated our performance as a staff last year as it related to our mission statement and reviewed areas of focus for this year. Our foci for this year are

1. building capacity for ministry in our teams,
2. strengthening relationships with members, volunteers, community, and other Lutheran congregations and church related ministries,
3. living joyously as servants of Jesus.

Camp Hill Community Association

I attended a couple of meetings this summer of business owners on Market Street. Camp Hill is actively trying to develop Market Street and is encouraging business and churches to work together.

CACCC

I met with representatives of CACCC about reestablishing a relationship. (Social Ministry Team decided not to continue our support in 2018). I think its important in this case to get the sense of the Council since Trinity was one of the original supporting churches for this organization.

Stewardship event

Our Stewardship Team working with our synod on a learning event on Oct. 12 in the morning. It will feature Trinity Seminary professor and author Mark Allen Powell. I encourage you to help the team and participate.

Your servant in Christ,

Pastor Jack Horner
