

It has been my honor to begin officially working with Danelle Andrews, our new Children's Ministry Coordinator. She is a fantastic asset to Trinity, and a wonderful colleague. With her on board I have been relieved to have more time to devote to planning, evaluating, and implementing programs for adults.

Children's Ministry

Here are the highlights of what our team has been doing:

- Along with a team of dedicated volunteers we are preparing for more than 75 children to participate in the 4:00pm Christmas eve worship service
- Faith Formation Kids! Has had an excellent first "semester". We are thrilled with our new curriculum which studies bible stories through the lens o

Family Events

- Hosted "Keepsake Christmas" event on Friday, November 30. Special thanks to Rick Sten, Pastor Liz, Pastor Jack, and Pastor John for being good sports and performing as some of the key characters of the nativity. Also big thanks to Jane Killian for helping us assemble a team of crafty "coaches" that made the evening run so smoothly. Amy Koch and Danelle Andrews led the event.

NEW MEMBERS / GUESTS

Work being done to reconsider the best way to share information and ensure that folks are being engaged in some sort of study or community building activity. Details being announced soon for 2019.

Faith Connections- Adults

Huge success with our fall slate of classes. More than 60 adults engaged in study and conversation each week. A few classes have ended, but a few new ones will be starting in winter 2019. See brochure for details.

"Sup & Study" Spring 2019

Discussion and planning is underway. If you have suggestions, please let us know.
