

Rebus Retell

One day, Jesus went up on a mountainside with His disciples and sat down. A large crowd of people followed Him. They had seen the miracles He had done by healing sick people.

When Jesus saw the large crowd coming toward Him, He said, "Where can we buy bread for these people to eat?"

Philip answered, "The crowd is too large! If we bought enough bread for each person to have just a small bite, it would cost more than half a year's pay!"

Andrew said, "Here is a boy with five small loaves of bread and two small fish. But how far will such a small lunch go to feed such a large crowd?"

Jesus said, "Have the all the people sit down." There was plenty of grass in that place, so all the people sat down. There were about 5,000 men plus women and children.

Then Jesus took the five small loaves and gave thanks. He handed out the bread to those who were seated. He gave them as much as they wanted. And He did the same with the two small fish.

When everyone in the large crowd had enough to eat, Jesus said, "Gather the leftover pieces," So the disciples gathered what was left over from the five small loaves, and they filled 12 large baskets with the pieces!
