“Next Phase” Planning

With Kelly Falck and Peter Fox, I have been in communication with a new member of Trinity, Michael Good to start a young adult ministry. The group will be called “Next Phase.” We have been working with Michael to plan and publicize this new group. Next Phase will begin meeting on Sunday, March 17th at 7pm.

Ignite the Church Conference

On February 19 to February 21, Pastor Brock, Debbie Wilson, Sister Marianne Brock and I attended this conference in Orlando, Florida. The focus of the conference was evangelism, hospitality, community outreach, and mission. As Pastor Brock noted in his sermon a few weeks ago, we heard Bishop Pedro Suárez speak on the church, diversity and cross-cultural work. I attended two workshops: Igniting the Church by Growing Young (focusing on youth and young adult ministries) and Equipping Leaders for a Discipleship Church (focusing on what it means to be a discipling church?).

Lent Planning

The whole staff has been busy planning and preparing for Lent these last few weeks. I have been a part of many conversations around worship, but I have also been planning for Wednesday Connect. I will be leading one of the classes.

Stewardship Team

The re-vamped Stewardship Team met for the first time on February 27. Pastor Horner, Council President Dan Drury and I spoke on the three aspects of this new team: Give, Serve, and Lead. We discussed our views of what this team will look like and what we will be working toward. We’ve got a great group of leaders from our church on this team!
