

STORY ONE:

A man used only his teeth to carry a table with a woman sitting on it. He even carried it almost 40 feet across a room. True or false?

TRUE! A man named Georges Christen from Spain did this in 2008.

STORY TWO:

During a battle many years ago, the sun stood still in the middle of the sky for almost an entire day. True or false?

TRUE! This happened in the Bible in Joshua, chapter 10.

STORY THREE:

A bird opened 35 drink cans in one minute. True or false?

TRUE! A macaw named Zac did this in 2012.

STORY FOUR:

The most drinking straws one person stuck into their mouth at one time is 500. True or false?

FALSE! Simon Elmore fit ONLY 400 straws into his mouth at one time! AND he kept them in there for 10 seconds. Wow! He set the Guinness World Record in 2009.

STORY FIVE:

A man and his friends were chopping down some trees, and one of their axes broke and sank in the river next to them. The man was upset, because it was a borrowed ax. One of the other men pulled out a stick, placed it on the water's surface, and the axe head floated right up to the top of the water. True or false?

TRUE! This happened in the Bible in 2 Kings, chapter 6.

STORY SIX:

The farthest a marshmallow has been blown out of someone's nostril and into someone else's mouth is almost 18 feet! True or false?

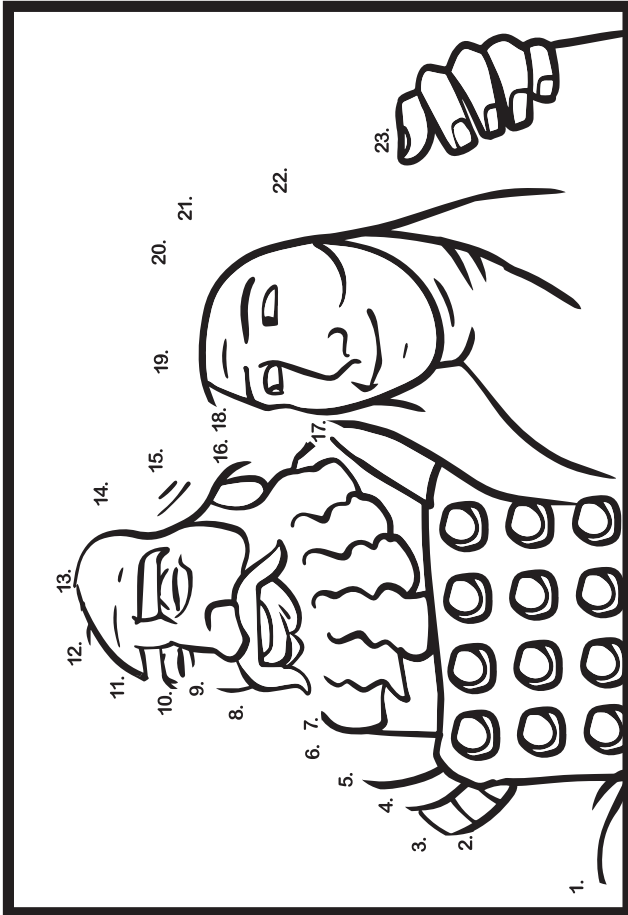

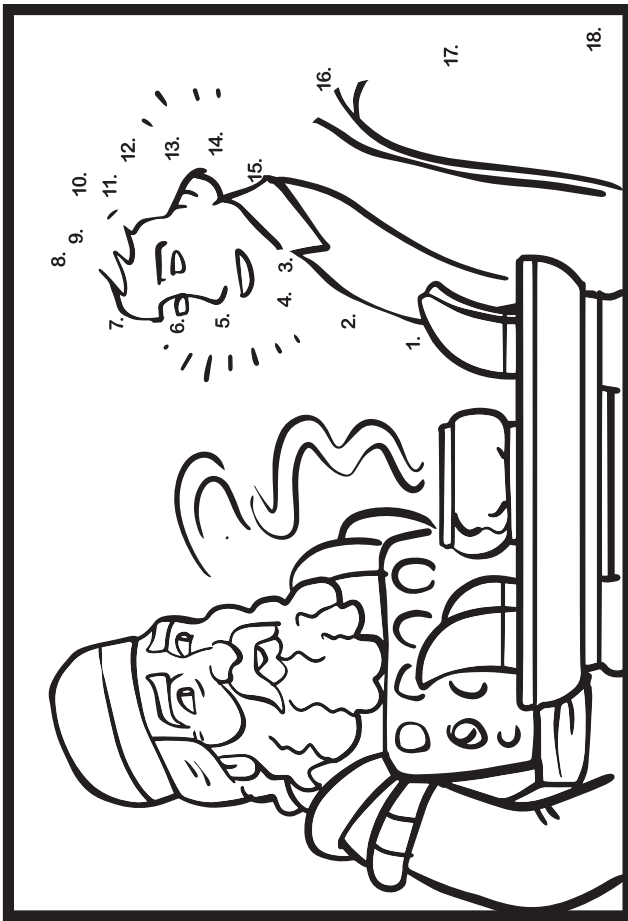

TRUE! Launcher Paul Prado and catcher Sophia Rojas set this Guinness World Record in 2012!
