Christmas Prep

November is Christmas prep. All of the staff are working hard on planning and coordinating our Christmas celebrations. Last year we had over 2000 in attendance. A special Christmas letter is going out this week.

Camp Hill Clergy

Trinity hosted the local clergy for lunch and conversation. We agreed to try to meet every other month. We will be in further conversation about crafting Trinity's noon-3 Good Friday service into more of a community service.

Security Team

We had an eye-opening active shooter training from officers from Camp Hill on Nov. 13th. They also did a walkthrough of the facilities to give us more tips and suggestions. I think it would be a good idea to establish a permanent Security ministry team to review their suggestions and work with the Worship and Property teams.

Pre-School

Pastor Frey and I attended our Pre-Schools Thanksgiving Feast. It was good to meet and greet the parents and kids and play pin the feather on the turkey.

Open House

Linda and I are hosting a Christmas/Epiphany Open House on January 4 & 5 in our new home. Thank you to Dave Rupnik who has been instrumental in helping us complete the basement so we could fit everyone!

Your Servant in Christ,

Pastor Jack Horner
