Re: Report to Council

Some highlights of February 2020 work:

- With Steve Kauffman, wrote and published Trinity Weekly newsletters. We should recognize Jane Killian and Nancy Martin for their time as volunteers in proofing publication every week for us. Thank you, Jane and Nancy.
- Attended Tuesday staff meetings; attended AED training on Feb. 11.
- Wrote and published Trinity Parish for March-April, including writeups of new Council members.
- Communicated frequently with new webmasters to ensure that site is current and to provide graphics and copy as needed. FYI and so the work of the three new webmasters is recognized, please know that I work primarily with Jessica Sheaffer, who is responsible for the homepage and who is an absolute godsend—responsive, collegial, and quick. Although I work less with Mary Alin Lubold, I have found her to be an equal blessing. And while I have not worked at all with Tom Kautz (he posts sermons, for example), we are very fortunate to have him on board, too. Same with Mary Alin's sister, Taryna Wong, who works with Mary Alin to post content (creatively!) on the electronic message board in the Gathering Space—two amazing women. And we would not be anywhere without the talents of Danelle Andrews, who spends hours and hours both on communications and children's ministry.
- Worked with various teams and staff on communications needs, such as banner for March 29 concert, publicity for strategic plan update, labels for prayer shawl ministry, tutors re coat collection, more.
- Prepared Easter bulletin cover and worked with staff on "Are you Dying" sermon series
- Prepared "Ashes to Go" handout and yard signs for Ash Wednesday, and a separate handout to advertise the event with preschool parents and support groups.
- Prepared design for Simpson Ferry Road digital poster (billboard) about Easter. We offer a very special thank-you to Mike Akers, who generously donated the month-long space to us.

Lent
GIVING UP SOMETHING
GIVING TO SOMETHING

During Lent, will you give UP something? Or give TO something?

Lent began Feb. 26. This season, let's think outside the box! You can give something up, but do not limit yourself for us. At the same time, you can give TO something to serve others. Also, do you see to pick up a Lenten Offering Box in the Gathering Space, add money daily during Lent, and set your dollars up "outside" to support others in Guatemala and programs at the Camp Cure NMCA. You can also donate online at www.trinitycamphill.org/donate.

THINK OUTSIDE THE BOX

Welcome to "Ashes to Go"

Your response is in blue type as we pray together.

Create in me a clean heart, O God, and let me not have a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from your presence, and take not your Holy Spirit from me.

A mighty God, you have created us out of no dust at all. Earth may think us as a sign of our mortality and impermanence, reminding us that only by the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ are we given eternal life.

Four Lenten weeks will be marked with ashes as the pastor says, "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return." Accomplish in us, O God, the work of your salvation, that we may show forth your glory in the world, by the cross and resurrection of your Son, our Savior.

Go forth into the world to love. Go with goodness, full of good courage, steadfast to that which is good. Render to no one an evil for evil. Strengthen the faithful. Support the weak. Help the afflicted. Honor all people. Love and serve God, resting in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Thanks be to God.
Go in peace, Amen.

For your reflection after you leave the church to experience Lent on your own, we are offering you a Lenten prayer book. It is a reflection on the life of Jesus Christ, and we hope it will help you to live more fully in the world. According to the Lenten prayer book, we are called to acknowledge our need for redemption, to give up something, and to give to someone in need.
