

Report to Congregation Council for March 2020 Trinity Lutheran Church Worship Team

Worship Team met on February 21, 2020.

Worship Budget 2020

How we will live within a smaller budget:

Easter balloons will be cut back to have enough to display in the gathering space and distribute to children as they leave services and not used to decorate unless we receive enough contributions through flower sales.

Steve, Stephanie, Jane will talk to advertise altar flower opportunities to the congregation in hopes of increasing the amount we add to that fund.

Jane will talk to Paul about the Altar Guild expense for dry cleaning and new linens.

Decorations

Black veils went up for Ash Wednesday then changed to purple for Lent.

Altar Care

Altar care workers will now check that fonts are filled with water since there is not always a sexton present on Sunday mornings.

Ushers

AED training is underway. All three trainings are being led by Chuck Herold. Bob was asked to see that pictures and an article are prepared for Trinity Parish.

Pastors

Pr. Brock has continued the weekly prayer list. Steve has some ideas for including a contact by postcard or phone call to each household as their names come up on the list.

Pr. Brock gave us a brief history of how we began using de-alcoholized wine as part of his recommendation to return to alcoholized wine. The pastors will consider this for the near future.

Security—another keypad has been added to the Chestnut Street door.

Frequency of Worship Team meeting times
