Planning Worship for Lent and Holy Week

The staff continues to be hard at work planning worship for Lent, Holy Week and Easter. I preached my first Lent sermon last week and enjoyed putting together 'the Sermon Points to Ponder.'

First Call Theological Education

I met with my first call colleagues in February again and we spent our time together talking about stewardship. It was interesting to hear how other churches approach this topic.

New Members/ BegInterviews

As mentioned in my February report, Kelly Falck and I are having one-on-one conversations with each of the new members to get to know them better and to help them get connected at Trinity. These conversations have been fruitful and it's clear that God is working through these conversations.

Life Group

I've met with the Life Group I am leading twice. It is a good group of ladies and I can see the connections forming already. I am glad for this Faith Connections ministry.

Community Outreach Ministries

I met with this team on February 18. We had a productive meeting. We discussed the events of the next couple of months as well as the future of our team. This conversation will continue at our May meeting where I have asked the team members to bring important information about the organizations to which they relate to.

Faith Formation

On Wednesday, February 19 the staff met to discuss future Faith Formation events, classes, etc.

Worship Meeting

Also, on Wednesday, February 19, the staff and worship team met to discuss some key issues moving forward.

AED Training

Also, on Wednesday, February 19, I attended the AED training led by Chuck Herold. It was a good refresher for me and I learned a lot of these new machines.

Thursday Bible Study

On February 20, I substituted for Pastor Horner at the Thursday Bible Study. Though it was a difficult passage from Genesis. We had some great discussion about what the story of the Tower of Babel might mean for us today.

Confirmation

In January, I had a great class with the confirmation students talking about other Christian denominations and religions. On February 23, I continued that conversation after the students visited other houses of worship. It was interesting to hear their reflections on other faith communities.

Ash Wednesday

What a day?! It was a privilege to be a part of the various worship services that day. I especially enjoyed being a part of Ashes to Go where 53 people received ashes. I also led the service for the women's bible study and the contemporary service at 7pm. I also got to help Pastor Horner burn the palms for ashes again this year!

First Communion Milestone

On Sunday, March 1 I helped Danelle Andrews with the first communion milestone class. It was fun to talk with the kids about the Lord's Supper and be a part of this exciting day in their lives as Christians.
