Christmas

We had the most unusual Christmas of my ministry, but the key was to remember Jesus, celebrate his life, and share his love. I think we did that as well as we could have given the circumstances. I am so appreciative of our musicians Tim and Debbie for their flexibility and ability to make this Christmas so special. To all of the pastors, staff and volunteers "Thank you!." We remembered, celebrated, and shared Jesus!

Podcast development

The Trinity pastors' podcast "Good Things Come in Threes" debuted last week. It's being received well and we are committed to doing it every other week.

Your servant in Christ,

Pastor Jack Horner
