

Zechariah and Elizabeth loved and served God. They were unable to have kids.

Zechariah was chosen to burn incense before God in the temple while the other priests waited outside.

An angel appeared and said Zechariah and Elizabeth would have a son who would prepare the way for the Lord.

Zechariah thought it was impossible and didn't believe what the angel said and so the angel said Zechariah would have to be silent and unable to speak until his son was born.

Elizabeth became pregnant and gave birth to a son.

The people celebrated and were going to name them Zechariah, like his father. Elizabeth said, "No, he must be called John."

Zechariah asked for something to write and wrote, "His name is John."

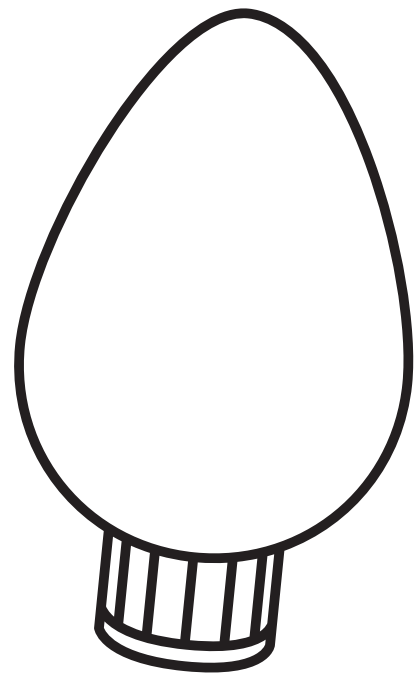

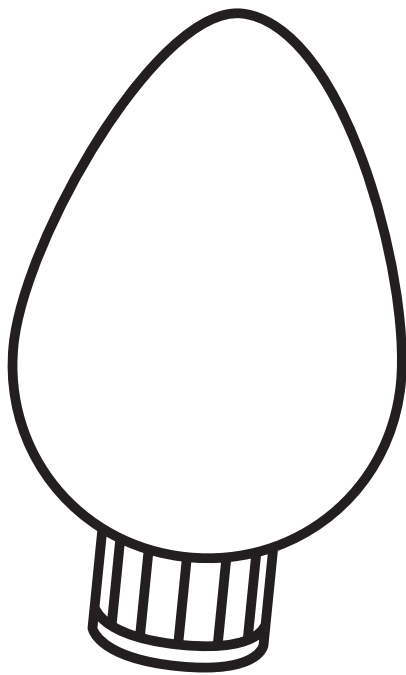

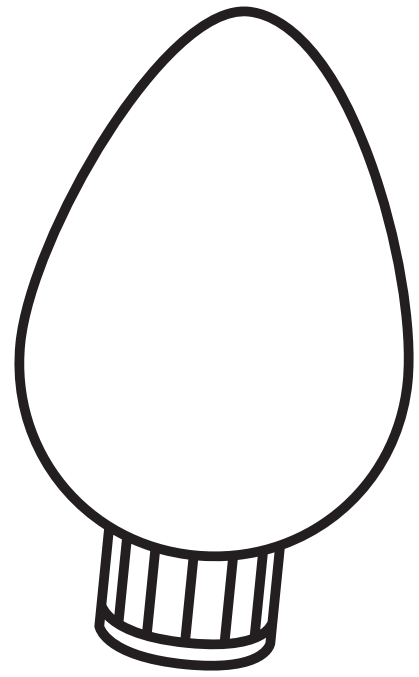

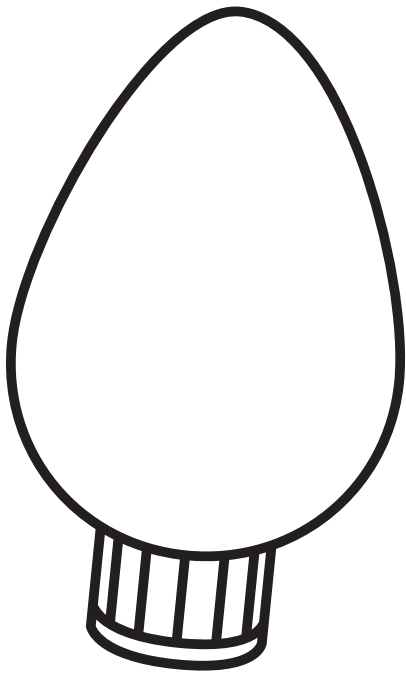

Right away Zechariah could speak and right away he praised and celebrated God.
