

- We are in the process of evaluating all our programs and seeing what areas we need improvement.
- We are planning for the may fair. We are planning to invite our neighborhood parents and kids to join us
- we are planning to host Craft Day on May 7th, 2022
- faith formation activities continue as scheduled for adults, children, and teenagers.
- We are planning to have different faith formation classes during the summer. The schedule will be announced in the next few days