Creative Worship – June 1 and July 27

The staff met to discuss themes for the fall and discuss tentative Christmas Eve plans.

Mutual Ministry – June 1 and July 19

I met with the wonderful folks on my mutual ministry team in June and July to discuss my August sabbatical plans.

Stewardship for All Seasons – June 2 and July 14

Throughout June and July, I attended the first sessions of this new program the Give Serve Lead team is participating in. We have learned a lot from this team of folks.

Synod Assembly – June 3-4

The pastors and our voting members attended the 2022 Synod Assembly via Zoom.

Camp Kirchenwald Staff Training – June 9

Trinity member and Kirchenwald director, Zach Weiss invited me to lead and participate in the staff training at camp.

Synod Candidacy Committee – June 16 and July 7

I met with our synod's candidacy committee to endorse two candidates for ministry.

Vacation Bible School – June 20 –24 and July 26

Another year of VBS is completed! I lead the Bible Adventures station that week. I also participated in one of the Pop-up VBS events in July.

Greeter Training – July 10

I met with existing and new greeters in July for training to prepare us for the fall.

Missions – Quentin Bernhard visit on July 17 and July 20

Our Missions team hosted Quentin Bernhard, our new YAGM volunteer on July 17. The Missions team also met in July to prepare for Bread Weekend and plan for the fall.

Faith Formation Summer Events – July 21

I lead a bible study on connecting like Jesus at the Horner's.

Summer Worship and Service Events

These events were successful! Many thanks to the folks who volunteered at Christian Churches United, Pink Hands of Hope, and the Capitol Green Belt. We look forward to these events again next summer!

Sabbatical

My report from my August sabbatical is forthcoming, but to make a long story short: it was relaxing, fortifying, and wonderful. I was able to spend a lot of time with my family and read several books.
