

The following are February Report

- We continue to implement two programs targeting parents and kids under four years. We will soon evaluate its impact
- Youth hangouts and other faith formation classes for adults and kids continue during the lent season
- We are testing new podcast content and will start releasing it to the public after easter.
- We started two different programs targeting parents and kids under four years old.