Other things:

- Probably not a lot of you noticed, but a couple of Sundays ago I was a bit excited in presiding at communion, and taped the chalice in exactly the right manner that caused a bit of wine to come flying out, and land directly on the white paraments. There was still enough wine for communion. However, after worship, I did beg Fran Jacobs' (chair of nave altar care) forgiveness.
- I want to remind you that I will be on mini-sabbatical for this coming August. I am planning on doing some prep work for the Associate Pastor workshop (Leading from the Second Seat) for next February, as well as visiting with some large congregations to learn how they handle membership issues.

God's peace,

Pastor John Brock
