Continuing Education

I'm attended the ELCA Larger Church Conference in Pompano Beach, FL. The main presenters Mark Deymaz, author of "The Coming Revolution in Church Economics" and Kaitlyn Scheiss, author of "The Liturgy of Politics: Spiritual Formation for the Sake of our Neighbor" were excellent and offered very thought provoking insight into their topics. I recommend both books.

DCHA

Last month I shared the Downtown Camp Hill Association wrote an email to the borough council concerning the Market Street streetscape plan and projected budget overrun. The borough is scaling back their project to stay within the budget.

Choral Festival

I was privileged to be the MC for Trinity and the Harrisburg Singer's Choral Festival on May 13th. This is a great part of our concert series.

Bike Blessing

We had our first bike blessing at the Farmers' Market on May 30th. Hopefully this will become a new tradition at Trinity for all who ride.

Divorce Care

On May 31st I lead a short prayer service for the latest group to go through DivorceCare, a Trinity support group led by Barbara Fickel. She does a wonderful ministry helping people journey through difficult times. Make sure you thank her.

Mission Project

I propose a motion under new business "that the Council convene an ad hoc committee to explore mission projects that enhance long-term revenue and create optimal social impact." This is in line with Emphasis 2 of our 2023 Stewardship Appeal: Explore.

Your servant in Christ,

Pastor Jack Horner
