The following are September Report

- We started Faith Formation Classes with a lot of adjustments. This year, we have a significant increase in kids participating in our ministry on Sunday morning. We are still looking for volunteers.
- We are getting ready for trunk or treat. We are still looking for cars and candies.