

Council Report
October 2017
Ministry Director for of Music

September saw the beginning of weekly rehearsals for the 4 choirs that I direct, and the 3 that Amy directs. We are now in full swing rehearsing all of the music planned over the summer.

Many instrumental and vocal offerings from people of all ages took place in September and will continue throughout the Fall and winter ...

I've been working on countless musical and logistical details for the Oct. 22 event: Reformation 500 – The Church's Journey in Art and Song.

It will be a multimedia event with 2 large 90" TV's displaying famous, historic Christian artwork throughout the centuries coupled with inspirational music from all times and places to be sung by our Concert Choir, choristers from other local Lutheran churches and the audience – accompanied by orchestra and bells.

Don't miss it.

Sara Lobaugh (flute), Kim Hannigan (clarinet), Alison Koch (cello) and I (organ) participated in a program featuring the organ with different musical instruments. It was held at Camp Hill Presbyterian Church on Sept. 15 and sponsored by the local chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

Lots of preparation also took place for Christmas at Trinity on Dec 10. I attended four staff meetings, creative worship, and a meeting with Pr. Horner. I also played for three funerals and one wedding.

Respectfully Submitted,

TIM
