

"God's Word"
Reformation Sunday
October 29, 2017
by Rebecca Enney

So, here is Uncle Floyd doing his annual job as sexton at the church. He is cleaning the large picture of Martin Luther, who, by the way, is one of the fellows who helped the church to reform and make better ways for people to know that God loves them!

And then he thought he heard the voice of Pastor Glenn talking with someone around the corner.

Pastor Glenn was saying "Of course we worship only God. The Bible contains the WORDS of God. And God's Word is amazing!"

"I don't think I understand much of God's Word." said the person talking with Pastor Glenn.

"That is okay. There are days that I am not sure what I understand either."

Uncle Floyd wondered who Pastor Glenn was talking to. He sprayed the glass and wiped it with a clean cloth.

Pastor Glenn said: "They say it was Martin Luther who said: 'The Bible is alive, it speaks to me; it has feet, it runs after me; it has hands, it lays hold of me...'"

The other voice said: "I like that!"

Uncle Floyd sprayed the glass again and wiped it and thought "I reckon it would be really cool to meet Martin Luther when I get to Heaven. Come to think of it, I reckon it will be unimaginable when I meet Jesus when I get to Heaven!"

Let's bow our heads and close with prayer. You can repeat after me:

Thy word
is a lamp unto my feet,
and a light
unto my path.
Amen