

"The Lenten Project Box"

February 25, 2018

by Rebecca Enney

This is the SCS Teacher and her class. She has started a special project for Lent, that time before Easter when we especially work to be intentional about serving God.

Here is a display board. She put this blue square at the top. Then she took these three pieces of black and they will make a (cross.) She added these two white pieces of felt. (? hmmm?)

She gave each student an activity page on pale green paper.

She asked each of the students to write their first name on the paper and think about one kind deed they performed this week, then either write or draw a picture of their kind deed. They should place the paper in this box right here!

Elizabeth raised her hand right away. "On Tuesday, when Mommy has band practice and Daddy was at a meeting and Aunt Gertrude was putting the twins to bed and they were really fussy and I helped by reading them one of their favorite books while Aunt Gertrude cleaned up the mess on their high chairs and the floor from supper!

"That WAS a kind deed Elizabeth. I can help you write that on one of these green papers and put it here in "The Lenten Project" box.

And then Barabas raised his hand. "One time when it was just me and Francis at the supper table and no one was talking, I decided to ask him a question so I asked him how his job as the operator of the "THE EXTRAORDINARY GARGANTUAN INDEFATIGABLE UNRULY DISHWASHER . . Patent Pending" was going. And he said "Fine." He doesn't talk much."

And now, I would like YOU to think of a kind deed you have performed this week. Then, when you get back to your seat, a grown up can help you write it on this pale green activity sheet. Then, either at Communion time or at the end of worship, you can place your paper here with the others. We will do this again next week.

Let's close with a prayer. Bow your heads and close your eyes.

DEAR GOD IN HEAVEN, ALL OF US KNOW WE SHOULD BE KIND AND HELPFUL. PLEASE REMIND US DURING THIS LENTEN SEASON TO WORK AT THE VERY KIND, HELPFUL ACTIONS THAT YOU WANT US TO DO. AMEN
