Pastor Ron Glusenkamp serves as the director of Always Being Made New: The Campaign for the ELCA, a five-year, $198 million comprehensive campaign that will establish a strong culture of stewardship allowing this church to boldly do God's work in Jesus' name throughout the world.

Ron is a graduate of Concordia Senior College, Fort Wayne, Indiana (BA in Greek) and also a graduate of Christ Seminary-Seminex (M. Div. Biblical Studies). He was ordained in 1981.

From 2006-2014 Ron served as Senior Pastor at Bethany Lutheran Church in Cherry Hills Village, CO and previously served at St. Paul Lutheran Church, Wichita, KS; Immanuel Lutheran Church, Kansas City; Gethsemane Lutheran Church, St. Louis, MO. Ron was the Vice President of Customer Relations for the ELCA Board of Pensions (now Portico), and was a guest Lutheran Preacher on Day 1 (formerly the Protestant Hour).

In 1998 Ron published a book titled Signs for These Times (CPH), which is a practical resource that helps church leaders use their church signs as a venue for getting their congregation known in the community and connecting faith with daily life and community happenings. He co-wrote God's Standard or Gold Standard?: Studies in Proverbs (Book of Faith) with Peter Mayer, which follows readings from Year B, Lectionaries 23-25.

Ron has been married for 41 years to Sue Ann Glusenkamp, who is a clinical nurse educator at Porter Hospital in Denver, and together they have three adult children. Ron is a bread baker and a pretzel maker. He likes "to raise dough" literally and figuratively! Ron is committed to the vision "that all may be fed."

New Cycle of Our Strategic Plan Available. The new cycle (2018-2020) of our strategic plan has been completed. It builds on our previous plan and emphasizes “Building Relationships; Making Connections; and Building Foundations” as part of our mission to “Worship, Connect, Serve.” The plan focuses on our current capital appeal and addresses certain of our ministries for further advancement: Small Group Ministries; Trinity’s Nursery School; Inactive Members and Community Outreach; and Missions. The plan is on our website with print copies available in the office. Familiarize yourself with it so that you can be a key branch growing on our faith tree vine.

Books! Books! Books! Due to the overwhelming response to our gently used children's book drive, we will be able to give two books to each of the students in the classes where we tutor during the school year. Thanks for your generosity.

Our interactive prayer and discussions will provide guidance and support in your next steps.

Sup & Study Epilogue: Pray for Your Enemy Class

Room 239, 10:00 to 10:45 am

Winter snow forced us to cancel the last Sup & Study class this spring, but we're going to pull together the pieces and wrap up our PRAY FOR YOUR ENEMY class. All are invited to join in this powerful and meaningful discussion based on the struggle to love those who are different from us. Feel like the country is more divided than ever? Have a friend or family member who gets on your very last nerve? Fear that there are people in this world who are simply out to get you? While all these people may not rise to the level of a bonafide enemy would it do your heart good (and maybe theirs?) to find a way to pray for them? Then this is the class for you! By the end of the session participants will collectively create a prayer to be offered up at the end of class. This prayer might be one that you can use specifically in your own life or serve as an inspiration/template for you to personally create a prayer to meet your own needs. Facilitated by Zandra Bishop and Kellie Argot.
