worship

Four services, two times, two spaces! Starting September 9, our Sunday morning worship times are 8:30 and 11:00 for both contemporary (Fellowship Hall) and traditional (Nave). Faith Formation classes will meet at 9:45.

news

Parking lot update. Completion is still expected to be on or around August 23, depending on the weather.

Give to Trinity's future. Please turn in your commitment to support Trinity via our capital appeal if you haven't already done so. Go to <https://www.trinitycamphill.org/planourfuture/> or use your pledge cards from the big brochure or from the "Giving Stories" booklet.

Watch for more correspondence and for updates. Pledges total over $1 million thus far. Thank you!

Have you seen the Giving Tree in the Gathering Space? Support a social ministry during Christmas in July! Remove any ornament and return the item indicated by August 5 to benefit:

- ✓ Camp Curtin YMCA – Help Harrisburg inner-city kids
- ✓ Domestic Violence Services of Cumberland and Perry Counties – Help victims and children affected by domestic violence. Needs include household products.
- ✓ Criminal justice system ministry – Help this ministry that leads worship services at Dauphin County Prison and that provides a community breakfast each year.
- ✓ Bethesda Mission – Help this rescue mission that provides shelter, food, and counseling to men, women, and children.

August art display. Dr. Charles Fager is exhibiting the art of Mary Kay Fager, his late wife. Be sure to check it out.

Join our LivingProof Adventure class NOW—it's each Sunday at 10 am in Room 237 through August 26. Are you a living-proof example for folks you see every day who are unreached by God, people not aware or convinced of the faith by which you live? Need some help to get comfortable in connecting with this unreached-people group? Then join John West to take part in this stimulating video-based series. You'll learn how to listen to unreached people, many of whom have spiritual needs. By your example, you can help these folks into a relationship with Christ. You'll also find that the spirit becomes more alive in you. In today's culture where so much of the population has never set foot inside a church, you can be an ambassador for Christ. Don't miss these sessions!

Be a Trinity Tutor! Now is the time to think about joining Trinity Tutors for the fall. No experience is necessary. See the bulletin board down the hall to the library or talk to someone wearing an "Ask me about tutoring" sign. Harrisburg kids need YOU!

And speaking of helping Harrisburg school kids: Each year we collect and distribute school supplies for Trinity Tutors to take to Foose, Downey, and Scott elementary schools. Assembled kits contain pencils, erasers, 24-count crayon boxes, tissues, a composition book, and a plastic pencil case. Look for the school house display in the Gathering Space starting in mid-August.

Share your gift of decorating with Trinity.

Kathy Powers is seeking just the right co-chair—a creative and responsible person—to help plan, choose, organize, and implement the seasonal church decorations.

Special Dates in August

World Hunger Appeal

Month of August

Sponsored annually by Missions Ministry Team to benefit the ELCA World Hunger Appeal

Give generously to help families in the U.S. and globally. Your support addresses poverty and hunger by providing solutions, education, and medical assistance.

Purchase bread this weekend before and after all services! Just take your selection and pay with a donation. Also look for Hunger Appeal envelopes in your bulletin this weekend, or in the Narthex and Fellowship Hall the remainder of the month. Make checks payable to Trinity; write "World Hunger" on memo. Donations will be reflected on your giving record.
