LUTHERAN CHURCH

Welcome to Trinity Lutheran Church! Please sign the red Worship Witness booklet to record your attendance with us this day, and indicate how many are communing. Then pass the booklet to the worshipers beside you in your row. If you are a guest, name tags are available for you to wear--we would be delighted to greet you by name. Hearing assistance devices and large print bulletins are available from an usher.

about today's service

On this day we celebrate the heart of our faith: the gospel of Christ—the good news—that makes us free! We pray that the Holy Spirit would continue to unite the church today in its proclamation and witness to the world. In the waters of baptism we are made one body; we pray for the day that all Christians will also be one at the Lord's table.

P: Presiding Minister A: Assisting Minister L: Lector C: Congregation

Instructional Liturgy

As all have been united in Christ at baptism, all participate in the worship liturgy. Liturgy (which means “work of the people”) is the order of worship passed to us from both the Jewish synagogue and the early years of the Christian church.

The first section of the Liturgy is the Gathering when we assemble as one single household of worshipers and prepare to worship God.

Confession and Forgiveness

Confession and Forgiveness is our opportunity to have all sins taken away by God's declaration in the Pastor's Words of Absolution. We are forgiven because God says so in Jesus' death and by his promise – not because we feel forgiven.

All may make the sign of the cross, the sign marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

P: In the name of the Father, and of the ✝ Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

P: Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

Silence is kept for reflection.

P: Most merciful God,

C: we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

P: In the mercy of almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for us, and for his sake God forgives us all our sins. As a called and ordained minister of the church of Christ, and by his authority, I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the ✝ Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

Please turn to face the processional cross as it enters our midst.

Gathering Hymn No. 504: A Mighty Fortress

EIN FESTE BURG

Songs give us the opportunity to praise and thank God. The first songs we sing are gathering songs which call us together as the body of Christ.

Greeting

The Greeting, often called the Apostolic Greeting, is a paraphrase of Paul's salutation or blessing that ends his Second Letter to the Corinthians in the New Testament.

P: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C: And also with you.

Hymn of Praise

There are two Hymns of Praise: Glory to God and This is the Feast. These are sung by us to praise Christ and signify that we are a faith centered in Jesus. Both of these hymns are almost word for word from Scripture: Glory to God is the hymn of the angels to the shepherds at Christ's birth in Luke 2:14 and is sung most days of worship. This is the Feast is based on Revelation 5, 15, and 19 and is sung during the season of Easter and on Reformation, All Saints, and Christ the King festivals. Today, the combined choirs sing the Hymn of Praise.

Anthem: "God is our Refuge and Strength"

Allen Pote

*God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble, though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea,
though the waters roar and foam, we will not fear.
Come and behold the work of the Lord, the awesome acts of God.
He is in the midst of His people, in all the earth.
He is the Word, we are His hands, He will lead us.
He is the air, we are His song,
we will celebrate His presence all the day long.
Come and behold...He is the rain, we are the stones, He will cleanse us...
He is the air... God is our refuge and strength!...*

Combined Choirs and instrumentalists

Prayer of the Day

The Prayer of the Day, once called the Collect, brings together the themes of the day. This prayer ends the Gathering and begins the Liturgy of the Word.

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: Let us pray. Almighty God, gracious Lord, we thank you that your Holy Spirit renews the church in every age. Pour out your Holy Spirit on your faithful people. Keep them steadfast in your word, protect and comfort them in times of trial, defend them against all enemies of the gospel, and bestow on the church your saving peace, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

† Word †

The Liturgy of the Word centers on the spoken and preached Word. It is based on the liturgy used in the synagogues during the time of the apostles and was well known to early Christians.

There are typically four readings at each worship service. The readings rotate on a three-year lectionary cycle which assigns the Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke (and the other readings) to a particular church year that begins with Advent and ends with Christ the King. Readings from the Gospel of John are assigned to all three lectionary cycles. A responsive reading of a psalm may be included.

First Reading

Romans 3:19-28

Paul's words stand at the heart of the preaching of Martin Luther and other Reformation leaders. No human beings make themselves right with God through works of the law. We are brought into a right relationship with God through the divine activity centered in Christ's death. This act is a gift of grace that liberates us from sin and empowers our faith in Jesus Christ.

<sup>19</sup>Now we know that whatever the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. <sup>20</sup>For "no human being will be justified in his sight" by deeds prescribed by the law, for through the law comes the knowledge of sin. <sup>21</sup>But now, apart from law, the righteousness of God has been disclosed, and is attested by the law and the prophets, <sup>22</sup>the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction, <sup>23</sup>since all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God; <sup>24</sup>they are now justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, <sup>25</sup>whom God put forward as a sacrifice of atonement by his blood, effective through faith. He did this to show his righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over the sins previously committed; <sup>26</sup>it was to prove at the present time that he himself is righteous and that he justifies the one who has faith in Jesus. <sup>27</sup>Then what becomes of boasting? It is excluded. By what law? By that of works? No, but by the law of faith. <sup>28</sup>For we hold that a person is justified by faith apart from works prescribed by the law.

L: The word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Children's Message

[Stand]

We stand for the Gospel reading to remember the resurrection and to show respect for Christ. The Gospels are a narrative account of Jesus' life and ministry while on earth. Matthew, Mark and Luke are called "Synoptic" Gospels because they are alike in many ways. Synoptic means "seen together." This is largely due to the belief of Biblical scholars that the Gospel of Mark was used as a source for the Gospels of Matthew and Luke. The Gospel of John is very different from the Synoptic Gospels, both in terms of structure and content.

Gospel Procession

A brief song or verse is sung prior to the reading of the Gospel. The Acclamation announces the good news of Jesus Christ.

Please turn to face the procession as it moves to the midst of God's people and join in singing:

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Gospel Acclamation

P: The holy gospel according to St. John, the 8th chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel Reading

John 8:31-36

Jesus speaks of truth and freedom as spiritual realities known through his word. He reveals the truth that sets people free from sin.

<sup>31</sup>Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, "If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples; <sup>32</sup>and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." <sup>33</sup>They answered him, "We are descendants of Abraham and have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean by saying, 'You will be made free'?" <sup>34</sup>Jesus answered them, "Very truly, I tell you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. <sup>35</sup>The slave does not have a permanent place in the household; the son has a place there forever. <sup>36</sup>So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed."

P: The gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Sing as the procession returns to the front.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Still be our guide while our troubles last,
And our eternal home.

Sermon: "Bound Free"

Pastor Jack M. Horner

The Sermon, or proclamation of the Word just read, is also from the synagogue tradition and has its roots deeply embedded in Hebrew practice.

[Stand]

The Creeds – there are three – are ancient statements of belief that were found to be necessary to distinguish Christian from non-Christian faith. The word Creed is from the Latin for "I believe." Typically in worship we recite either the Apostles' Creed or the Nicene Creed. The Athanasian Creed is sometimes recited on Trinity Sunday. Today we use the Nicene Creed.

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the + resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of Intercession

Each petition ends:

A: Lord, in your mercy,

C: hear our prayer.

✝ Meal ✝

Peace

The sharing of the Peace reminds us of the first words the Risen Christ spoke to his disciples and also begins the portion of worship that is the Meal.

P: The peace of Christ be with you always.

C: And also with you.

[Sit]

Offering

Optional methods of giving: Use the Give+ app on your mobile device • Use the Giving Station in the Gathering Space • Text an amount to 717-963-2281 (be sure to use a "$") • Use the "DONATE" button on our website and e-blasts

The Offering was originally a gift of bread and wine for use in Holy Communion. Once Holy Communion was over, the remaining bread and wine were distributed to the poor. Only later did the offering evolve, for the sake of need, to monetary contributions (it became impractical to try and share actual food with the poor far away).

Worship Witness: (Please sign booklet and return to center aisle.)

[Stand]

Offertory

The Offertory Canticle explains how the simple gifts of bread and wine are presented to God whereby God uses them to be present to us.

Let the vine - yards be fruit - ful, Lord, and fill to the brim our cup of bless - ing. Gath - er a har - vest from the seeds that were sown, that we may be fed with the bread of life.
 Gath - er the hopes and the dreams of all; u - nite them with the prayers we of - fer. Grace our ta - ble with your pres - ence, and give us a fore - taste of the feast to come.

Offering Prayer

An Offering Prayer is an opportunity to thank God for all the gifts God gives to us which we may now share with others. Sometimes, instead of a prayer, we have a song as the Offering Response which speaks of our intended stewardship of God's gifts – that we may use them for God's purposes.

A: Let us pray.

C: Blessed are you, O God, maker of all things. Through your goodness you have blessed us with these gifts: ourselves, our time and our possessions. Use us, and what we have gathered, in feeding the world with your love, through the one who gave himself for us, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

The Meal of Holy Communion (also called our Lord's Supper) is the distribution and reception of that which Jesus has promised to us – his Body and Blood. We, therefore, affirm that it is the Body and Blood of Christ with the bread and wine – not a mere symbol, but Christ's real presence. Jesus Christ himself is present to forgive us and strengthen our faith.

Great Thanksgiving

The Great Thanksgiving begins with a dialog encouraging our worship of God in Jesus Christ. Thanksgiving is "eucharistia" in Greek. "Eucharist" is another name for the Holy Communion meal.

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Proper Preface

The Proper Preface proclaims the praise of the assembly in words that conform to the Season or Day.

P: It is indeed right, our duty and our joy ... we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, Holy, Holy

The Sanctus, "Holy, Holy, Holy," refers to the Trinity and bridges the Thanksgiving and the Eucharistic Prayer.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, Lord God of pow'r and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Eucharistic Prayer is a longer prayer, which sets Christ's Supper within the context of the history of salvation, culminating in Jesus Christ and the gift of his body and blood.

P: God of our weary years, God of our silent tears, you have brought us this far along the way. In times of bitterness you did not abandon us, but guided us into the path of love and light. In every age you sent prophets to make known your loving will for all humanity. The cry of the poor has become your own cry; our hunger and thirst for justice is your own desire. In the fullness of time, you sent your chosen servant to preach good news to the afflicted, to break bread with the outcast and despised, and to ransom those in bondage to prejudice and sin.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

For as often as we eat of this bread and drink from this cup we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

C: Christ has died, Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

P: Remembering, therefore, his death and resurrection, we await the day when Jesus shall return to free all the earth from the bonds of slavery and death. Come, Lord Jesus! And let the church say, Amen.

C: Amen.

P: Send your Holy Spirit, our advocate, to fill the hearts of all who share this bread and cup with courage and wisdom to pursue love and justice in all the world. Come, Spirit of freedom! And let the church say, Amen.

C: Amen.

P: Join our prayers and praise with your prophets and martyrs of every age, that, rejoicing in the hope of the resurrection, we might live in the freedom and hope of your Son. Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, almighty Father, now and forever.

C: Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

The Lord's Prayer is that prayer which Scripture tells us Jesus taught his disciples. The Doxology "For the kingdom, the power, and the glory..." is a later addition which praises God.

C: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Invitation to Communion

P: Jesus says, "Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty."

C: Lord, give us this bread always.

[Sit]

Lamb of God

The Agnus Dei, which means Lamb of God, is a prayer addressed specifically to Christ present in the Eucharist as a sacrificial offering once for all. The Fraction, or breaking of the bread occurs here.

Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; grant us peace, grant us peace.

Distribution of Holy Communion

The Communion itself is the distribution and reception of that which Jesus has promised to us – his Body and Blood. We, therefore, affirm that it is the Body and Blood of Christ with the bread and wine – not a mere symbol, but Christ's real presence. Jesus Christ himself is present to forgive us and strengthen our faith.

We invite all baptized Christians to the Lord's Table to celebrate the real presence of Christ in the Sacrament. Communion is by intinction. You will receive a wafer. Dip it in the chalice of wine before consuming. You may then return to your seat or come to the altar rail for prayer. Children and adults who aren't communing may come forward to receive a blessing. As a gesture of hospitality, we use dealcoholized wine (less than .5% alcohol). In addition, we offer gluten-free wafers, available upon request – please ask at the time of communion.

Anthem: "Be Still" (Psalm 46)

Hank Beebe

*Be still, and know that I am God. I will be exalted in the nations.
I will be exalted in the earth. Be still... Come, behold the works of the Lord,
What desolations he has made on the earth,
He maketh wars to cease on the earth, He breaketh the bow,
He cutteth the spear, He burneth the chariot. Be still...
The Lord of Hosts is with us, the God of Jacob is our refuge. (Based on Psalm 46)*

Matins Choir

Solo: "Find in Me"

Susan Boersma/arr. Courtney

*By your mercy find in me your image, Lord, that I may be a true reflection of your face, by your mercy... By your mercy speak to me clear words of hope and victory;
your loving voice assuring me of your mercy.
Your righteousness exalts me to your throne where I may stand by faith in Christ alone;
not by any merit of my own, but by your mercy.
By your mercy set me free in childlike faith to trust and see your truth in radiant robes displayed, robes of mercy....*

FOUNDATION

The Sending Song challenges us to leave worship and take the love of Christ out into the world.
