It's THIS Sunday!

Annual YG Pasta Dinner
Sunday, October 28
6-7:30 pm

Great food and fun!
Invite friends!

You'll love this traditional Italian dinner: pasta, meatballs, Amoroso rolls, salad, ice cream. You'll also love that all funds raised will support our Senior High Youth Group's mission trip next summer. It's a win-win event! Buy tickets in the Gathering Space after worship, in the church office, or at the door.

Advance tickets: $8 adults • $5 children 3-10

At the door: $9 adults • $6 children 3-10

Kids under 3 eat free

Connect to deepen your faith

Bible Milestone & Bible Discovery Workshop Sunday, October 28, 9:45 am For kids in Kindergarten and Grade 3 with their parents

Parents, when your children were baptized, you promised to “place in their hands the Holy Scripture.” During this special workshop, kids will choose the style of Bible that interests them, after which families will dig into this wonderful library from God. Register now online to let us know you are coming. Also register even if you can't join us—that way we can make sure that your child gets his or her Bible anyway!

Ale House Table Talk, Tuesday, October 16

Appalachian Brewing Company, 6462 Carlisle Pike, Mechanicsburg

Topic: “Reform me, O God!” Join Pastor Jack Horner and Pastor Karen Durbin for this popular discussion group. Come at 6 pm to order dinner, or 7-8 pm for conversation.

Come to this week's Sup & Study on Wednesday, October 17, for “ELCA Global Mission: The Power of Accompaniment.”

Presenting will be Andrew G. Steele, Director for ELCA Global Church Sponsorship. Dinner is 5:20 – 6:30 pm. Presentation is 6:30 – 7:30 pm. Register in the Gathering Space, or at www.trinitycamphill.org/sup-study, or call the church_office.

Each evening in this five-week series is an individual event, so join us whenever you're able!

Divorced or separated?

Connect on Thursday nights, Room 227, 6:30

DivorceCare helps you recover from the pain of separation and divorce. Meet weekly with others in a warm, caring, supportive environment. Video seminar, group discussion, personal workbook. Led by Barbara Caboot.

Help our organizations supported by Social Ministry

Pink Hands of Hope is the best little thrift store in the area, according to shoppers and Trinity volunteers. Look for Trinity members on Sunday wearing an "Ask me about Pink Hands" name badge, or check out the bulletin board in the library hallway to learn more about this Trinity-supported nonprofit.

New Hope Ministries provides food to people in need. Drop off items at New Hope's Lemoyne Center, 701 Bosler Avenue. The October wish list includes canned tuna, canned vegetables, rice, peanut butter, and toilet paper. Or give an hour of time weekly at New Hope's Mechanicsburg Center, 5228 E. Trindle Road, to pack food in 19 backpacks for families. For food packing, contact Jennifer Mummert at wssd.k12.pa.us or 717-761-8415.

Attend installation of Pastor Liz Frey

Sunday, October 21, at 4 pm at Trinity: Let's all attend this special worship service as we formally welcome Pastor Liz and meet her family.

Care and pray for one another

Reach out to hospitalized and at-home members. See the list in the Narthex and the Gathering Space tract rack.

Every member prayer list, September 28 – October 4. We lift up the following members: Nolan McMullen; Justine McMullen; Jane McMullen; Dustin and Julie McKeever and Gwendolyn; Barb McGovern; Matt and Jen McGeorge, Lily and Lucas; Dave and Sandy McGeorge; Marc and Teresa McGee

Hey, Youth, this is for you!

The first Sr. High YG (Grades 9-12) is THIS Sunday, October 14, 6-8:30 pm, Room 236. Come out to this night of group-building, strengthening friendships, fun, and faith discussion with your peers. We provide dinner; you bring friends and snacks. C U there for the awesomeness!

YG for Grades 6-12 is NEXT Sunday, October 21, from 6-8:30 pm. Come as you are and bring friends for tons of fun, fellowship, faith, and group bonding. Pizza and drinks are always provided—just bring a snack to share and don't forget to bring friends. YG includes all!
