NEXT SUNDAY: October 28, 9:45 am
Bible Discovery Workshop

Education Wing first floor

For kids in kindergarten and grade 3 with parents

Parents, you promised your children at their baptism that you would “place in their hands the Holy Scripture.” So do not miss this workshop where kids choose the Bible that suits them and then explore it as a family. Register at www.trinitycamphill.org/bible-milestone-registration/. If you can't make it, go online and register anyway so we can get your child his or her Bible.

NEXT SUNDAY, October 28
Annual YG Pasta Dinner
6-7:30 pm

Great food and fun!
Invite friends!

You'll love this traditional Italian dinner: pasta, meatballs, Amoroso rolls, salad, ice cream. You'll also love that all funds raised will support our Senior High Youth Group's mission trip next summer. It's a win-win event! Buy tickets in the Gathering Space after worship, in the church office, or at the door.

Advance tickets: $8 adults • $5 children 3-10

THIS SUNDAY: Attend the installation of Pastor Liz Frey

THIS SUNDAY, 4 pm, Nave: Let's formally welcome Pastor Liz and meet her family. Preaching will be Mark Kopp, pastor at St. James Lutheran in Columbia. Pastor Kopp taught Pastor Liz's confirmation class when he interned at her home church in Lancaster. He was also on her Synod candidacy committee. "I wouldn't be a pastor today if not for Mark Kopp," said Pastor Liz. Providing music will be Tim Koch, the Chancel Choir, and Adult Bells.

Connect to deepen your faith

Come to the final Sup & Study, Wednesday, October 24, to learn about "Accompanying Migrant Children and Families:

A Faithful Calling." Presenting will be Alaide Vilchis Ibarra, ELCA Program Director for Migration Policy. Alaide is a DREAMER who became a U.S. citizen in 2014. Dinner is 5:20 – 6:30 pm. Presentation is 6:30–7:30 pm. For dinner or child care, register in the Gathering Space or at www.trinitycamphill.org/sup-study. Or call the church office. Registration not needed for program.

Join the relaxed, informal, and friendly Men's Breakfast Gathering on Saturday, November 3, at George Enney's home, 2154 Chestnut Street, Camp Hill. Breakfast is at 8, followed by discussion that ends at 9:30. Invite friends—all men are invited! Let George or Becky know you are coming, please, by calling 717-737-4115 or emailing georgebeckyenney@yahoo.com.

Give to Always Being Made New

Let's help Lutherans grow our communities of faith, form new leaders, welcome our neighbors, confront hunger and poverty, accompany our global churches, and do much more. Look for envelopes in Nave pew pockets, Chapel, Fellowship Hall, and Gathering Space tract rack. Thank you!

Help our organizations supported by Social Ministry

Trinity supports the nonprofit Pink Hands of Hope that serves local cancer patients by providing wigs, bras, prosthetics, clothing, hope, and encouragement. Funding comes from its retail Thrift Store in Mechanicsburg and supporters like you and Trinity. Look for Trinity members on Sunday with an "Ask me about Pink Hands" badge. Also see the bulletin board in the library hallway.

New Hope Ministries provides food for people in need. Drop off items at New Hope's Lemoyne Center, 701 Bosler Avenue. Needed this month are canned tuna, canned vegetables, rice, peanut butter, and toilet paper. Or pack food (an hour a week) in 19 backpacks for families at New Hope's Mechanicsburg Center, 5228 E. Trindle Road. To pack food, contact Jennifer Mummert at 717-761-8415 or jmummert@wssd.k12.pa.us.

Care and pray for one another

Parish acts. Two funerals:

Hey, Youth, this is for you!

YG for Grades 6-12 is THIS Sunday, October 21, from 6-8:30 pm. Come as you are and bring friends for tons of fun, fellowship, faith, and group bonding. Pizza and drinks are always provided—just bring a snack to share and don't forget to bring friends. YG includes all, so come as you are! Call Peter Fox at 717-737-9921, ext. 227, with questions.

Reach out to others as you serve at Trinity

Sunday, November 4 • Greeters' training. Join Pastor Liz in the Gathering Space at 9:45 am. See back page.

Sunday, November 18 • Thanks & Giving. This event is an outstanding way to reach out to others in the community. We cook and package Thanksgiving meals and deliver them to homebound members and others in the community. Consider all the ways YOU are blessed, and then consider volunteering as a family or with a friend to share your blessings and God's love. Questions? Contact Kathy Holmes or Ellen Ney.

Come to these events outside of Trinity

You and a friend are invited to attend a free workshop, "Don't worry, retire happy," hosted by Thrivent Financial at the West Shore County Club. Choose one of these four sessions: Tuesday, October 23, 5 or 7 pm; or Wednesday, October 24, 5 or 7 pm. Call or email Thrivent to reserve a spot: 717-525-9535 or westshoregorup@thrivent.com.

November 7 is the deadline to sign up for the December 8 Trinity-sponsored trip to Allenberry Playhouse to see the holiday musical, The Man Who Saved Christmas. For details, pick up a reservation form in the Gathering Space.

Dec. 8, 2 pm, Allenberry Playhouse

Help clean up on Saturday, November 3

Fall cleanup is Saturday, November 3, starting at 9 am. To help outside, contact Bruce Bigelow at 717-761-3289 or nbbigs@comcast.net.
