Books, books, and more books

Can we get 900+ more books? A huge thanks to all our Faith Connect Kids! who donated more than 300 gently used children's books as part of the 40 Days of Kindness activity.

Our Trinity Tutors would love it if you can keep those gently used books coming. The tutors want to give each of their 325 second graders in the Harrisburg School District several books of their own to read over the summer. So if you can dig even deeper in your own collection—and at yard sales and library book sales—it would be wonderful!

Talk to the icon artist

Ed Miller from Mechanicsburg, the talented icon artist whose beautiful works are displayed in the Gathering Space and worship areas, will be in the chapel on Sunday April 14, from 9:45 to 10:45 to talk about his work and to answer questions.

Shhhhh, don't tell anyone!

Do NOT read this unless you are in 6th or 7th grade. The Grade 6-7 Faith Formation class (aka Sunday School) is keeping a 50-year Trinity tradition of Secret Church alive. If you're the parent of a 6th or 7th grader—well, actually, you shouldn't be reading this, but if you are, send your offspring to Room 11 in the basement. We won't say too much more because, again, IT'S A SECRET. It's enough to know that we've talked about the apostles risking their lives to spread Jesus's word after His death. On March 31, we'll try on costumes and make our altar cloth; on April 7, we'll reenact an early SECRET Christian worship service in the catacombs.

Kitchen notes

Missing from the kitchen. Anyone see the Trinity Cook Book that's escaped from the kitchen? The kitchen crew needs it, so if you've seen it, help it to find its way back, please!

We're looking for some kitchen crew members who are available weekdays to join the fellowship in the kitchen. No cooking skills required, just a desire to help your church and enjoy the company of fellow church members. Contact Joe Hunter 717-737-9933 or leave a message in the church office.

Faith Connect Kids! 40 Days of Kindness

This Lenten season, Faith Connect Kids! is serving others through 40 Days of Kindness. We'll share God's love with friends and family both in the church and in the community.

Last week we learned about Jesus's miracle in feeding 5,000 people with just one child's lunch. Our kids decorated lunch bags and then took them home to fill with non-perishable food items that we donated to New Hope Ministries. Imagine what Jesus can do with all those bags of food. Check out our website (trinitycamphill.org/children-family) and follow us on Facebook (@trinitycamphill; #TLC40DaysOfKindness).

Week 3 – March 31 – “Give in Secret”

We live in a social media world where every accomplishment, no matter our age, is shared on the internet—good deeds, school or home projects, awards, activities in which we or our kids excel. Then we wait for the “likes” and the comments. We feel good when people notice with “Way to go” or “You are awesome” or “Keep up the good work.” It's like applause!

But ask yourself this hard question: Do we do these things and share them because we want to inspire others -or- because we want the potential applause? Hmmmm.

This week we'll talk about serving others without looking for applause (Matthew 6:1-4). Our every action should be based not on how we'll LOOK to others, but rather on how we'll HELP others using the gifts and talents God has given us. God applauds our good deeds without having to comment online.

In class, each kid will make a card for someone and deliver it anonymously. At home, the kids will make cards that we'll send to our at-home members. Also this week, let's turn our cameras around to snap pictures (with permission) not of our kids doing good deeds but of folks who serve our kids—mom/dad making dinner or driving the kids to school or church, grandma babysitting, a teacher teaching, Miss Amy directing the choir, or who knows what else?

Good Friday Prayer Vigil April 19

- Please consider taking part in our Good Friday Prayer Vigil in the chapel on April 19.
- The vigil begins at 9 am and ends at 3 pm; it's divided into 18 segments, 20 minutes each.
- Sign up for one or more segments to form a "chain" to pray for our Savior Jesus Christ, for His church worldwide, for our global families, for all those in need everywhere, for our pastors, for our elected leaders, and for divine guidance from God, our Father.
