

“Can a Bad Person Become Good?”

Acts 9:1-20; John 21:1-19

May 5, 2019

by Becky Enney

In the Bible lesson this morning, Ananias wondered if a bad person can become good. After all, there was this very bad person going around gathering up Christians and handing them over to the authorities to throw into jail, or worse.

The Lord seemed to tell Ananias to go to this really bad guy and heal his sudden blindness! “Why would I do that?! Can a Bad Person Become Good?” However, Ananias did go and do as God instructed him. The bad guy regained his sight and, Praise the Lord, the bad guy, whose name is now Paul, Paul became one of the very best preachers for Jesus “IN THE WORLD”!

Now to Uncle Floyd. He has been so busy lately! He has all the work as sexton at The Church For Forgiven Sinners, with the added assignment of now leading the volunteers who do all the outside work! And he also drives his younger brother Francis to the Retirement Home (where Mrs. Potato Head lives) for his shift running THE EXTRAORDINARY GARGANTUAN INDEFATIGABLE UNRULY DISHWASHER . . . Patent Pending. And his brother Frank, from CA is in for a visit. Frank is the father of Barabas (long story). AND Uncle Floyd does all the cooking and cleaning for this family! There is not much time for extra things, like their wrestling matches and a good game of Parcheesi!

As a result, Uncle Floyd has been ignoring the nagging thought (a message from the LORD?) that he needs to get back to talking to Natasha Doolittle, Kat's mother. You may remember that Barabas is pretty sure that Kat took the key from the hook that opens their back door. Nothing has been missing in the house, but Uncle Floyd knows he should follow through with Natasha. It is just that she is such a difficult person!

Uncle Floyd said to himself “I reckon sending her a text would be easier than calling her on the phone.”

Hello Mrs. Doolittle. Would you be available to meet me at the Cornerstone this week? I would like to discuss the key to our back door.

And why would I do that! Kat does not have your key.
SUBJECT CLOSED!

Wednesday at 2:00?

I WILL COME, ONLY TO STRAIGHTEN YOU OUT.
ONCE AND FOR ALL!

I wonder if Uncle Floyd and Mrs. Doolittle will have a good conversation. Mrs. Doolittle is not a really BAD person, but she certainly is a very difficult person!!! I wonder if a very difficult person can become a good person?

THE END