Welcome

to our newest members as of August 24-25!

You'll see David and Laura Butcher, with sons Jacob, 10, and Jonathan, almost 5, mostly at traditional services. They live in Camp Hill and look forward to getting involved in Trinity's church life.

Jason and April Ritter, with Kolby, 15, and Lauren, 13, Dillsburg, attend traditional services and look forward to growing with the Trinity family.

Steven Infanti, Harrisburg, loves our Sunday contemporary worship and our Saturday night worship. You'll see him at either service with Trinity's Elizabeth Schenk.

Kyle and Lois Lantzy Dillsburg, like that Trinity is so welcoming. Their infant son, Xander, is being baptized on September 1 at our 11 am traditional service; big brother, Connor, is 3.

Jimmy Tice, Camp Hill, is engaged to Trinity member Amy Plank. The couple will be married next June. Look for them at contemporary worship.

Dr. Richard Cook, Hummelstown, attends mostly traditional services. His wife, Jennifer, has taught Sunday School here. Their daughter, Emily Margaret, was confirmed in June.

Ryan Caboot and Lisa Benzie, New Cumberland, are engaged. Ryan is a former Trinity member, and the couple looks forward to all that Trinity offers. Ryan and Lisa are not locked into any particular worship style, so you might see them at any of our services.
