Don't miss these meetings

Plan to attend one or both open forum meetings on Sunday, September 15, and Sunday, September 22, at 9:45 am. We'll discuss the projects in Trinity's security and improvement initiative, Honor Our Past, Plan Our Future. Dan Drury, our Congregation Council president, discussed the initiative and described the proposed projects in an August 1 letter to members and supporters. You can read Dan's letter online at www.trinitycamphill.org, or ask for a copy at the church office. On Sunday, September 29, members will vote on the projects during a congregation meeting.

Check out the art display in the Gathering Space

Artist Debbie Hart Thompson's style is impressionistic and expressive, and her work is mostly in pastels. Her bio is on the table in front of the display.

SERVE! Be a Trinity Tutor

Yes, you can start NOW to join our Trinity Tutors. Give just one hour each week to help second graders in the Harrisburg School District with reading and math. They will benefit enormously from your help, and YOU will benefit enormously by helping them. More info? Contact Holly Frymoyer today at 717-576-5964 or mjhollyfrymoyer@yahoo.com.

Some of our tutors

SERVE! Make quilts

First Tuesday of the month, 6-9 pm, Room 237 (Sept. 3)

Third Tuesday of the month, 9 am-3 pm, Room 237 (Sept. 17)

You don't need to know how to sew to help our illustrious Sewing Ministry group make quilts for local, national, and international relief efforts. If you're 12 or older, we'll teach you the steps, and you'll love it. Introduce yourself at one of the September meetings, spend some time, and find out more. Questions? Call Carol Crowe, group leader, at 717-737-2936.

SERVE! Support and engage group home residents

Friday, September 20, 6:30 – 8:00 pm, room 124-126. Give a little time to engage and support some very appreciative group home folks! Enjoy games, snacks, and conversation with residents of the Cumberland Vista group home as we host game night at Trinity. The home is part of CROSS (Christian Residential Opportunities and Social Services), a Trinity-supported community outreach ministry. Contact Tom Drye at tom.drye@iCloud.com for more information.

SERVE! Trinity supports those in need of emergency food

Trinity supports the Ecumenical Food Pantry through volunteers, food donations, and monetary contributions. The Food Pantry—which just completed its 48th year of helping more than 29,000 people—provides emergency food assistance. Operating five days a week, the Food Pantry is the largest in Dauphin County thanks to 200+ volunteers; 92 percent of its operating budget goes toward food. More info? Contact Lynn Bertram at lnbertra@verizon.net.

Hey, Youth! Come on out on Sunday, September 8

Calling everyone in grades 6 through 12! Come to the YG room (Room 236) on Sunday, September 8, from 6-8:30 pm. You'll love the fun, faith, and fellowship—that's what Trinity's YG is all about. Dinner and drinks are provided, but you can bring snacks to share. Spread the word and bring friends!

For Trinity men: Breakfast

All men: Join the Men's Breakfast Gathering on Saturday, September 7, at the home of John Crowe, 330 South 31st Street, Camp Hill. Breakfast is at 8 am, followed by Bible Study or discussion of a current topic that ends by 9:30. Call John and Carol at 717-737-2936 or email John at johncrowe194809@hotmail.com to let them know you're coming so they know how much food they'll need.
