Connect and Serve

Acolyte Training for Youth, Grades 5-12, is Saturday, February 22, at 1 pm in the Nave. Contact the church office if you can attend this training. As an acolyte, you'll assist the pastors during traditional services; you might light the candles, carry the cross during the processional, be the book bearer, or assist with communion.

Ale House: Tuesday, February 18, Appalachian Brewing Co., Carlisle Pike, with pastors John Brock and Trinity Mechanicsburg's Karen Durbin. Topic: How can we talk about faith in an age of divisiveness? 6:30 dinner, 7:30 for discussion.

YOUNG ADULTS

Are you a young adult who enjoys board games or card games?

Come join our Next Phase group at

The Game Table Café on February 28, 4900 Carlisle Pike, Mechanicsburg. Text Michael Good at 717-979-6486 for more info or for any questions. Next Phase is Trinity's young adult group for all in their 20s and 30s.

Make beautiful, warm quilts with our sewing ministry team when it meets on February 18 from 9 am to 3 pm in Room 237. The friendly team will teach you all the steps, so no worries if you've never made a quilt or used a sewing machine. The group also meets evenings on the first Tuesday of each month from 6-9 pm. So not only do you have options, but you will love that the quilts go to support local, national or international relief efforts. Questions? Call Carol Crowe, sewing ministry leader, at 717-737-2936.

Camping Sunday is February 23, so wear your camp shirt to support Lutheran camping! Sister Marianne Brock, associate executive director of the Lutheran Camping Corporation and executive director of Camp Nawakwa, will preach at all weekend services; Zach Weiss, Camp Kirchenwald's director, will give all children's sermons on Sunday. Also be sure to attend a camping presentation in Fellowship Hall at 9:45.

Prepare for Easter: Lent begins on February 26

Put your last year's palms in the Gathering Space basket. Pastor Horner will burn them on Tuesday, February 25, to make ashes for Ash Wednesday.

Ashes to Go? Trinity is joining a number of churches that offer a drive-through imposition of ashes.

Our hope is to bring spirit, belief, and belonging out from behind church doors into the community.

After all, God is the god of the whole world, and Jesus commanded that we "go" to bring God's forgiveness to the world, and new beginnings. We extend a special welcome to those who have lost a church connection or who have not participated before. Please spread the word—our Ashes to Go will be offered in our parking lot on Ash Wednesday, February 26, from 7 to 9 am.

Also spread the word and mark your calendars with our entire Lent through Easter schedule:

Feb. 26	Ashes to Go	7-9 am, parking lot

 Speaking of caring for others, we received a warm testimonial from a woman who participated in Trinity's most recent DivorceCare sessions. Here's an excerpt:

It was really comforting to be able to meet within the church with other people seeking support. I was expecting a group of women. I was quite surprised that there were more men than women who participated consistently. It was so helpful to hear the perspectives and experiences of the men in the group, and their willingness to share...thank you.

DivorceCare is a divorce recovery support group that provides help and healing for the hurt of separation and divorce. Facilitated by Trinity member Barbara Caboot, the weekly Wednesday sessions will re-start on March 25 and continue through June 24 from 6:30-8:30 pm in Room 227. Join the group at any time. Questions? Email Barbara at barbara.caboot@yahoo.com.
