

Holy Week: Good Friday

Order of Worship for streaming service during COVID-19

about today's service

Life and death stand side by side as we enter into Good Friday. In John's passion account, Jesus reveals the power and glory of God, even as he is put on trial and sentenced to death. Standing with the disciples at the foot of the cross, we pray for the whole world in the ancient bidding prayer, as Christ's death offers life to all. We gather in solemn devotion, but always with the promise that the tree around which we assemble is indeed a tree of life.

P: Presiding Minister C: Congregation L: Lector A: Assisting Minister

✝ Gathering ✝

We gather together to praise God and receive God's love.

Welcome/ Introduction Pastor Jack Horner

Prelude: "What Wondrous Love is This" arr. Raymond Haan
What wondrous love is this, O my soul, that caused the Lord of bliss to bear the dreadful curse for my soul....
Alison Koch, cello

Prayer of the Day Pastor Jack Horner

P: Let us pray. Almighty God, look with loving mercy on your family, for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be betrayed, to be given over to the hands of sinners, and to suffer death on the cross; who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

C: Amen.

Gospel: John 19:31-42 Pastor Jack Horner

Bidding Prayer

Silence is kept for private prayer after each bid.
Then the Presiding Minister prays a collect,
and the people respond, "Amen", after "Christ Our Lord."

Lord's Prayer

Pastor Jack Horner

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Adoration of the Crucified

H. Timothy Koch

The following dialog is sung three times, as a rough-hewn cross is carried into the church:

Good Friday Reproaches

H. Timothy Koch

Christ's charge against us, his faithless people, is sung.
The antiphon is sung once by the cantor, then repeated
by the congregation. After each succeeding charge, the antiphon is sung by the congregation.

A period of silence is kept for adoration of the Crucified and meditation on the mystery of redemption.

P: We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you. By your holy cross you have redeemed the world.
