

Sermon Points to Ponder
Questions that pastors ask you
to think about.
Also, at trinitycamphill.org/ponder

December 27 – First Sunday of Christmas
Weekly sermon title: *Tidings of Comfort & Joy:
Go Tell It on the Mountain*

Pastor Brock preaching

Don't just listen to the Sermon...Ponder how you can live it!

Use these questions as a starting point to dive deeper into the sermon each week. Can be used individually, with family and friends, or with your Life-group!

1. How would your life be different if someone had proclaimed with great joy what an awesome, amazing person you will be upon your first ever entering a place of worship? Could you have lived up to those accolades? What about your parents, how do you think they might have reacted?
2. Do you feel that you have been "clothed me with the garments of salvation"? What do you imagine that might look like?
3. In our Isaiah reading, the people of Israel were returning from seventy plus years in exile back to the land of their ancestors. Were they vindicated in their deliverance? Was it their own doing that brought about the end of their exile? Could they take credit for it?
4. Are you as grateful for all that Gd has done for you as you think Gd wants you to be? Who do you think is responsible for the good things in your life, your hard work and dedication? What has that self credit brought you?

Sermon Points to Ponder
Questions that pastors ask you
to think about.
Also, at trinitycamphill.org/ponder

December 27 – First Sunday of Christmas
Weekly sermon title: *Tidings of Comfort & Joy:
Go Tell It on the Mountain*

Pastor Brock preaching

Don't just listen to the Sermon...Ponder how you can live it!

Use these questions as a starting point to dive deeper into the sermon each week. Can be used individually, with family and friends, or with your Life-group!

5. How would your life be different if someone had proclaimed with great joy what an awesome, amazing person you will be upon your first ever entering a place of worship? Could you have lived up to those accolades? What about your parents, how do you think they might have reacted?
6. Do you feel that you have been "clothed me with the garments of salvation"? What do you imagine that might look like?
7. In our Isaiah reading, the people of Israel were returning from seventy plus years in exile back to the land of their ancestors. Were they vindicated in their deliverance? Was it their own doing that brought about the end of their exile? Could they take credit for it?
8. Are you as grateful for all that Gd has done for you as you think Gd wants you to be? Who do you think is responsible for the good things in your life, your hard work and dedication? What has that self credit brought you?