

find your purpose

January 24–
Third Sunday
of Epiphany
Weekly sermon title:
“Find Your Purpose”
Pastor Brock preaching

find your purpose

January 24–
Third Sunday
of Epiphany
Weekly sermon title:
“Find Your Purpose”
Pastor Brock preaching

Don't just listen to the Sermon...Ponder how you can live it!

Use these questions as a starting point to dive deeper into the sermon each week. Can be used individually, with family and friends, or with your Life-group!

1. Have you read the Book of Jonah (it's only four chapters, you can read it in less than fifteen minutes)?
  - a. What was Jonah's primary beef throughout the book?
    - i. What was it that God wanted Jonah to do, that he did Not want to do?
    - ii. Why didn't he want to do that specific task?
    - iii. Is that a valid complaint on his part?
2. What about the Gospel reading?
  - a. Simon and Andrew apparently simply walked away from their fish nets and boats. Was that a positive thing for them to do?
  - b. James and John left their dad Zebedee high and dry with the fishing business. Was that a positive thing for them to do to him?
  - c. Does God call us to walk away from our...
    - i. Families?
    - ii. Responsibilities?
    - iii. Obligations?
  - d. If so, then, why?
3. What has God called you to do something?
  - a. Are you willing to do whatever that is?
  - b. Are you willing to walk away from your...
    - i. Home?
    - ii. Family?
    - iii. Work?
    - iv. Everything you know and love?
4. Has God called you to do something that you Do Not want to do?
  - a. Are your reasons the same as Jonah's, or are they different?
  - b. Can you stay at home and still sever God?

Don't just listen to the Sermon...Ponder how you can live it!

Use these questions as a starting point to dive deeper into the sermon each week. Can be used individually, with family and friends, or with your Life-group!

1. Have you read the Book of Jonah (it's only four chapters, you can read it in less than fifteen minutes)?
  - a. What was Jonah's primary beef throughout the book?
    - i. What was it that God wanted Jonah to do, that he did Not want to do?
    - ii. Why didn't he want to do that specific task?
    - iii. Is that a valid complaint on his part?
2. What about the Gospel reading?
  - a. Simon and Andrew apparently simply walked away from their fish nets and boats. Was that a positive thing for them to do?
  - b. James and John left their dad Zebedee high and dry with the fishing business. Was that a positive thing for them to do to him?
  - c. Does God call us to walk away from our...
    - i. Families?
    - ii. Responsibilities?
    - iii. Obligations?
  - d. If so, then, why?
3. What has God called you to do something?
  - a. Are you willing to do whatever that is?
  - b. Are you willing to walk away from your...
    - i. Home?
    - ii. Family?
    - iii. Work?
    - iv. Everything you know and love?
4. Has God called you to do something that you Do Not want to do?
  - a. Are your reasons the same as Jonah's, or are they different?
  - b. Can you stay at home and still sever God?