Day 5

Bible Point: God chooses you.

Bible Story: God chooses Esther to save her people. (Esther 2–8)

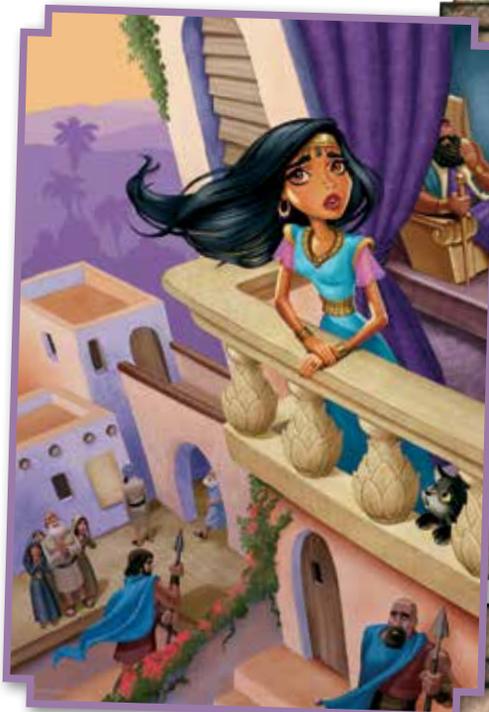

Bible Verse: “I have called you by name; you are mine.” (Isaiah 43:1)

Consider This:

- ◆ During his reign, King Xerxes invaded Greece, using one of the largest armies in ancient history, as well as a sizable navy. Unfortunately, the invasion ultimately failed.
- ◆ Nebuchadnezzar captured Mordecai’s ancestors, taking them from Jerusalem into Babylon. In Daniel, you can read about a few other Bible heroes captured at the same time!
- ◆ Although the name of God is never mentioned openly in the book of Esther, it’s clear that Mordecai believed in God’s sovereign plan for placing Esther in the role of queen so she could save God’s people.
- ◆ Haman offered an enormous sum of money to the men who would annihilate the Jews. The sum of 10,000 talents of silver was nearly two-thirds of the annual income of the entire kingdom. Scholars assume this money would have come from the plunder taken from the slain Jews.
- ◆ King Xerxes gave Mordecai a distinctive honor when he allowed Mordecai to wear a robe the king had worn. In ancient times, such an act signified a sharing of the king’s power, status, and honor.
- ◆ The book of Esther ends with a festival called Purim. Today, Jews still celebrate Purim, usually in March. Leaders read the book of Esther in the synagogue. Congregants cheer when they hear Mordecai’s name and hiss when they hear Haman’s name.

Why It Matters...

Being chosen feels special, doesn’t it? But it’s likely that Esther felt unprepared for the task for which God chose her. As much as kids love being selected for something special, they may feel a bit like Esther when they’re called on to befriend a newcomer at school, stand up to a bully, or share their faith. Kids may wonder if God really knows what he’s doing...and if they really can do such bold feats. Yet God didn’t only choose to love us—he chooses each of us to do his amazing work! Use today’s activities to encourage kids that they’ve been handpicked by God to be an integral, important part of his kingdom work!

Supplies

- ◆ box or treasure chest or bin
- ◆ partially inflated balloons
- ◆ large piece of fabric/blanket/sheet

WHAT WE FOUND

We've found that if balloons are inflated only halfway, they're less likely to pop.

Choose Your Treasure

Place the partially inflated balloons in and around the box or treasure chest. Use the piece of fabric to cover the box and keep the balloons inside and around it.

Say: All this week we've been talking about treasure. In this game, we get to find some!

1. Encourage kids to dig under the fabric and choose a balloon from the chest.
2. Continue until all kids have picked a balloon.
3. Give kids time to play with their balloons, trying to keep them in the air.

Say: In our game, we got to choose a balloon. Maybe you even chose one that's your favorite color. God chooses you. (You are treasured!) You're his favorite!
