Day 1

Bible Point: God knows you.

Bible Story: God identifies David as the future king. (1 Samuel 16:1-13)

Bible Verse: “O Lord, you have examined my heart and know everything about me.” (Psalm 139:1)

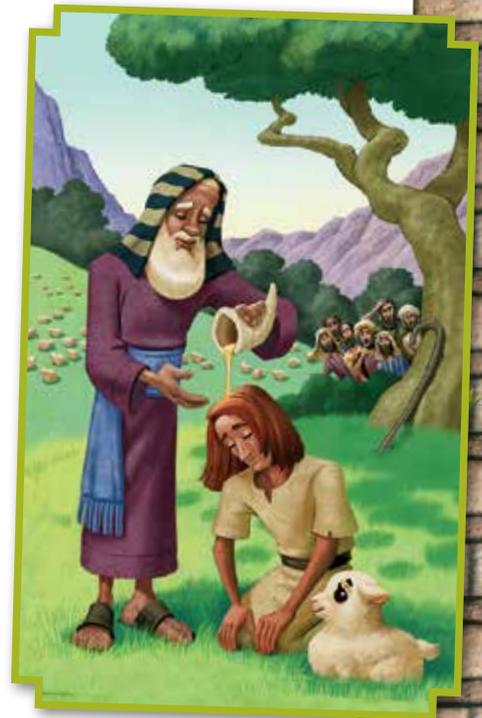

Consider This:

- ◆ Through the prophet Samuel, God warned his people of the hardships they’d endure at the hand of a king (1 Samuel 8:10-18). Yet their desire to be led by a human king—rather than by God—overtook Samuel’s candid cautions. So God gave them a king in Saul.
- ◆ King Saul’s initial humility soon transformed into hubris. He became rebellious and arrogant, leading God to choose a new leader for his people (1 Samuel 15:22-23).
- ◆ It’s unlikely that David’s family understood exactly the significance of Samuel’s anointing. For safety’s sake, Samuel wouldn’t have wanted to broadcast God’s designation of a new king while Saul still sat on the throne!
- ◆ Samuel showed his humanity when he evaluated each of Jesse’s sons based on outward appearance. God wasn’t interested in someone who looked like a king; God knew that David had the heart of a king!
- ◆ David ranked so low in his family that his father didn’t even invite him to the sacrifice with Samuel (1 Samuel 16:11). Instead, he tended the sheep—the job of a servant.
- ◆ Scholars estimate that David was about 10 to 15 years old when Samuel anointed him.

Why It Matters...

A recent survey found that more kids aspire to be a YouTube “star” than an astronaut, doctor, teacher, or musician. It’s no surprise that today’s kids crave fame and recognition. Yet as adults who love and lead kids, we need to ask “why?” Why do kids desperately desire to be known? What’s missing in their world? in their hearts?

In the technology-induced information overload, kids can feel invisible. Unimportant. Insignificant. That’s why today’s message brings hope! God, the creator of the universe, knows your heart. You can spark joy in kids as you affirm their value and visibility in God’s eyes. Kids don’t need to strive for celebrity when they discover that God knows and loves them.

God knows you.

Get-to-Know-You Goodies

Day 1

Supplies: Snack or food of your choosing!

1. Say: Let's get to know each other better by making food pictures that tell about us—a favorite sport, a number that tells our age or how many people are in our family, or a favorite animal. Then we'll guess what each person's picture tells us about him or her.
2. Take time to create your snack picture with your chosen food.
3. Take turns showing pictures and guessing what the picture tells about the person who made it.
4. Say: Even if we couldn't guess what some pictures meant, God knows exactly what each picture means because God knows you. (You are treasured!) Psalm 139:1 tells us, "O Lord, you have examined my heart and know everything about me."
